

رحمه الله Taymiyyah رحمه الله

Introduction

All praise is due to Allāh, Who sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth, and raised for this Ummah scholars who preserved the foundations of the Dīn, clarified its principles, and defended it from distortion. Among the most outstanding of these scholars is Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله knowledge, insight, and steadfastness upon the Sunnah and the way of the Salaf continue to illuminate the path for those who seek the truth.

The life and legacy of Ibn Taymiyyah (d. 728 AH / 1328 CE) عد رحمه الله are inseparable from the resurgence and revival of authentic Islām, particularly in times when the ummah faced the spread of innovations, distortions, and misguidance. His works remain a firm defense of Tawḥīd, the Sunnah, and the pure creed of Ahl al-Sunnah wal-Jamāʿah. Each treatise, fatwa, and refutation he authored was grounded in the Qurʾān, the authentic Sunnah, and the consensus and understanding of the Salaf al-Ṣāliḥ, as testified by the major imāms and verified by contemporary Salafi scholars.

This booklet presents a concise overview of one hundred verified works attributed to Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله, categorized thematically for ease of study and reference. It is a resource for every Muslim who desires to connect with the authentic tradition, to discern the distinguishing markers of the true path, and to equip themselves with the knowledge that grants clarity in matters of creed, worship, behavior, and methodology.

You will find within this collection major treatises on 'Aqīdah, detailed refutations of the people of innovation, foundational works in fiqh and usūl, treatises on tafsīr, purification of the soul, and clarifications on contemporary and civilizational challenges—each one written with precise adherence to revelation and the understanding of the early generations. Ibn Taymiyyah's style is marked by his unwavering honesty, depth, and uprightness, embodying the principles of 'adālah (integrity), tawātur al-ism (clear attribution), 'ilm (knowledge and competence), and hurmat al-kadhib (avoidance of falsehood).

We pray that this effort is a means of benefiting the seeker of knowledge, the caller to truth, and all who wish to distinguish the authentic Dīn from the ways of misguidance. May Allāh grant us all sincerity, steadfastness upon the Sunnah, and protection from every error and innovation.

"So hold fast to that which has been revealed to you; indeed, you are upon a straight path." (Surah Az-Zukhruf 43:43)

Allāh alone grants success.
