Experience the charm and allure of Downtown Hendersonville, where the inviting atmosphere calls to visitors to make themselves at home. The Main Street district embraces the slow-paced life with the curved street and outdoor seating to enjoy the city of four seasons, with shops and restaurants in abundance.

Make your way to the 7th Avenue District, dubbed 'Downtown's Creative Edge' with new energy and inspired entrepreneurs opening businesses and renovating buildings. Farmers gather here to sell fruit, vegetables, and more every Saturday during the Summer at the Hendersonville Farmers Market and creative entrepreneurs are transforming once barren spaces into places of whimsy and imagination with trains traveling now on model tracks, sparking the imagination of young and old.

Explore all of Downtown Hendersonville with self-guided tours, outdoor art exhibitions, and engaging entertainment for the entire family. Beyond its charming streets, Downtown serves as the gateway to your outdoor adventure with the breathtaking landscapes of DuPont State forest, Pisgah National Forest and the Green River Camelands to name a few.

Downtown Hendersonville is not just a destination, but an unforgettable experience to make your mountain moments. For more information, visit visithendersonvillenc.org and begin your journey through the heart of Hendersonville today.
