New You Medical Earns NABP Healthcare Merchant Accreditation

Hilliard, Ohio — New You Medical has earned Healthcare Merchant Accreditation from the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy® (NABP®), recognizing the clinic's commitment to patient safety, regulatory compliance, and healthcare best practices.

New You Medical is a functional and integrative medical clinic specializing in medical weight loss, hormone optimization, peptide therapy, and anti-aging medicine. The clinic combines evidence-based medical treatments with comprehensive lifestyle education focused on metabolic health, insulin resistance, chronic inflammation, stress management, gut health, and quality sleep.

NABP's Healthcare Merchant Accreditation identifies safe and legitimate healthcare and healthcare-adjacent entities worldwide. This accreditation signals to patients, providers, payers, and online advertising platforms that the business meets licensure requirements and adheres to applicable laws and industry best practices. As part of this designation, accredited businesses must obtain and maintain an active .pharmacy domain.

New You Medical's verified .pharmacy domain, newyou-medical.pharmacy, further demonstrates the clinic's commitment to transparency, patient protection, and secure digital healthcare delivery.

"Earning NABP Healthcare Merchant Accreditation is an important milestone for our clinic. This recognition reinforces our dedication to safe, compliant, and patient-centered care."

— Jiyoung McCoy, APRN, Owner & Medical Provider

"NABP congratulates New You Medical on achieving this important recognition. By earning Healthcare Merchant Accreditation, they demonstrate their commitment to compliance and patient care."

— Lemrey "Al" Carter, PharmD, MS, RPh, Executive Director and Secretary, NABP
