

COUNTY LEADER VOLUNTEER

Christian Action Network

An Initiative of New Mexico Family Action Foundation

OVERVIEW

Volunteer County Leaders are the boots-on-the-ground ambassadors for the Christian Action Network (CAN) in their local communities. These leaders will play a vital role in connecting local churches to the mission of NMFAM, strengthening biblical engagement across New Mexico, and mobilizing grassroots action on faith, family, and freedom issues.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVE

To serve as a bridge between NMFAM and churches in your county, ensuring that pastors and church leaders are informed, engaged, and equipped to stand for biblical truth in the public square.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Build relationships with pastors, ministry leaders, and churches in your county.
- Host informational meetings and share the CAN vision.
- Coordinate and lead local NMFAM events.
- Organize National Voter Registration Sunday efforts.
- Maintain communication with NMFAM leadership.
- Encourage legislative engagement within churches.
- Recruit, lead, and manage a team of Church Liaison Volunteers who help build connections and distribute resources across individual churches.

SKILLS & QUALIFICATIONS

- Strong communicator
- Effective networker
- Organized and detail-oriented
- Shares NMFAM's biblical values
- Self-motivated and dependable
- Leadership and volunteer coordination experience is a plus

COUNTY LEADER VOLUNTEER

Christian Action Network

An Initiative of New Mexico Family Action Foundation

TIME COMMITMENT

Estimated 5–10 hours/month with flexible scheduling. Participation in quarterly leadership calls and occasional statewide gatherings is expected.

SUPPORT PROVIDED

- Orientation and ongoing training
- Event toolkits and resources
- Connection to a statewide leader network
- Support in recruiting and guiding local volunteers

JOIN THE MISSION

Be part of a growing movement to equip the Church in New Mexico to rise, engage, and lead. As a CAN County Leader, you'll help shape the spiritual and civic future of your community and our state.