

Membership of the Birdston Regeneration Group

Birdston Regeneration Group (BRG)

The BRG is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) registered with the Office of the Scottish Charity Register (OSCR) as SC052301. Its purpose is to promote and encourage biodiversity by supporting native plants and animals through the purchase and appropriate restoration of the former Birdston coup site to incorporate a varied, functional, and sustainable environment. The day-to-day operation of BRG is undertaken by the Board of Trustees, which has six members. Further information on BRG may be found at <https://birdstonregenerationgroup.co.uk>

Membership of BRG

Persons who support the purpose of BRG may become Members. There is no membership fee. Members may either be an individual or a person authorised by a local community group. Members should be resident in the community and be entitled to vote in a local government election. Members will receive regular updates on the work of BRG. They will also be invited to attend General Meetings of BRG, including the Annual General Meeting, where they will be able to speak and take part in votes on the election of Trustees and the approval of the annual report and accounts. Members may be invited to help promote the work of BRG in their local community.

Application for Membership and Data Protection

Persons interested in becoming Members should complete the application form below and hand it to one of the Trustees. Alternatively, a scanned image may be emailed to birdstonregenerationgroup@gmail.com. Personal data will be kept secure and will not be shared. BRG is compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and a privacy policy is available from the BRG website. Approved applications for Membership of BRG will be acknowledged by the Secretary.
