RED FOLDER

We certainly praise God from whom all blessings flow. If you are reading this letter or grabbing the RED FOLDER, it is because you have experienced the death of a loved one. Please know you have our prayers and you have our condolences.

When someone close to us dies, oftentimes, we just don't know what to do. The heightened sense of emotion can make simple tasks extremely difficult to complete.

The RED FOLDER exercise is an attempt to organize things before this difficult period takes place in your life. It is my prayer you and your family will follow the guidance and write out your END-OF-LIFE instructions.

Hearing your voice after you have transitioned into eternal life is critical to healing the family, fulfilling your last wishes and honoring your legacy.

Some church members, who have experienced the death of a loved one, have lamented the ease of planning things due to the written instructions of the RED FOLDER.

I am asking you and your family to sit down and go through the process. Ask the tough questions! Have intense conversations. Allow the vulnerabilities and necessary awkwardness to persist. You are working for greater good.

Remember, God has his hands on you, and he will guide you through all of it.

The bible says ~ Romans 8:28

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Your church is here to help. If you require assistance to go through the exercise, please advise. We can also host a private RED FOLDER seminar for your extended family. Information is powerful. Death doesn't have to divide a family. TO GOD BE THE GLORY for the things he has done.

Humbly Submitted
