

Name: _____

Story Writing Frame 1

LET'S GET WRITING!

Here's the beginning of a story - can you finish it?

⚡ It was just a normal lunchtime. But suddenly, the ground rumbled and a giant hole appeared in the middle of the playground!

💡 Now it's your turn!

What do you think might happen after the big hole appears?

Use your imagination and jot down some ideas for what could happen in your story:

- Who is the main character?
- Where are they when the hole appears?
- What might be inside the hole?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

SOARING HIGH TUTORS
unleashing the potential in every child

Write down some interesting words, sentence starters and phrases to help make your writing fun and creative. We've started you off with a few of them.

Interesting words: mysterious, glow, tunnel...

Sentence Starters: Just then, Without warning, Out of the hole...

Phrases: the giant, swirling hole; in the blink of an eye; beneath the dusty ground...

TIME TO WRITE YOUR STORY!

Story Writing Frame 1 (SAMPLE)

LET'S GET WRITING!

Here's the beginning of a story – can you finish it?

⚡ It was just a normal lunchtime. But suddenly, the ground rumbled and a giant hole appeared in the middle of the playground!

💡 Now it's your turn!

What do you think might happen after the big hole appears?

Use your imagination and jot down some ideas for what could happen in your story:

- Who is the main character?
- Where are they when the hole appears?
- What might be inside the hole?

Who is the main character? A boy named Zak who loves adventure and is always ready to help others when they're in trouble.

Where is he when the hole appears? Zak was playing tag with his friends on the playground.

What might be inside the hole? A magical world made of sweets—giant marshmallows, candy canes, jellybean rocks, rivers of melted chocolate and talking animals who need help solving a problem.

Write down some interesting words, sentence starters and phrases to help make your writing fun and creative. We've started you off with a few of them.

Interesting words: mysterious, glow, tunnel, tumbled, swirling, sticky, whisper, stack, waving

Sentence Starters: Just then, Without warning, Out of the hole, Before he could run,

With a loud thud, As he looked down, Something told him,

Phrases: the giant, swirling hole; in the blink of an eye; beneath the dusty ground,

the climbing frame, the broken bridge, all around him; through a tunnel,

TIME TO WRITE YOUR STORY(SAMPLE)!

It was just a normal lunchtime. But suddenly, the ground rumbled and a big hole appeared in the middle of the playground!

Zak was playing tag when the climbing frame shook. Before he could run, he slipped—and fell straight into the hole!

Down, down, down he tumbled—faster than a rollercoaster.

With a loud thud, Zak landed on something soft and sticky.

“Where am I?” he whispered, looking around. To his surprise, he was sitting on a giant marshmallow!

All around him were candy canes, jellybean rocks and rivers of melted chocolate.

Suddenly, he heard a voice. “Hello? Are you from the world above?”

Zak spun around. A talking squirrel wearing a jelly hat was waving at him!

“Follow me!” the squirrel said. “You’re the one we’ve been waiting for.”

Zak followed the squirrel through a tunnel and came to a broken bridge made of candy canes. A group of animals stood near the broken bridge, looking worried.

“We can’t cross to the other side!” cried a rabbit. “Our food is stuck over there!”

Zak had an idea. He helped the animals stack marshmallows and tie liquorice ropes. Together, they fixed the bridge!

“Thank you, Zak!” said the squirrel. “You’re a hero!”

Suddenly—FLASH! Zak was back in the playground. His friends were still playing. He looked in his pocket and found a tiny jellybean crown.

Was it real?

Zak just smiled.

SOARING HIGH TUTORS
unleashing the potential in every child

