Figurines in porcelain, hand-applied decals and 24-carat gold details.

Elena Salmistraro offers us an interpretation of the imagery associated with Christmas, subverting its traditional aesthetic and iconographic canons: the decoration designed for the Holyhedrics collection – nativity scene, plates, mug and bowl – is composed of a mosaic of colours and rigid geometries of digital inspiration. This suggestion is interwoven with other citations derived from international cultures and traditions: from South America to Asia via Europe.

The idea of royalty is accentuated thanks to the use of gold decorations, typical of sacred art, but the real peculiarity is the presence the pixelated inserts, a digitally inspired multicoloured decoration also used for mugs, bowls and plates that gives the objects their true contemporary image, giving them a global-multicultural character, intended as a sign of union, coexistence, multiplicity and peace.
