

KindBit Terms of Service

Last updated: March 17, 2026

Welcome to KindBit. By using our application, you agree to these Terms of Service. Please read them carefully.

1. About KindBit

KindBit is a family communication app designed to provide simple, safe messaging between parents and children. The app allows family members to send predefined check-in messages and notifications to stay connected.

2. Eligibility

KindBit is intended for use by families. Parents or legal guardians must create an account and set up the app for their children. Children under 13 may only use KindBit with verified parental consent, in compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA).

3. Account Registration

You must sign in using a valid Google or Apple account. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials. Each user selects a role (Parent or Child) during setup. Parents are responsible for managing their children's accounts and ensuring appropriate use.

4. Acceptable Use

You agree to use KindBit only for its intended purpose: family communication. You may not:

- Use the app for any unlawful purpose
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to other users' accounts
- Send excessive or spam notifications
- Use the app to harass, bully, or harm any person
- Reverse engineer, decompile, or modify the app

5. Family Pairing

Parents generate a unique 6-digit invite code to connect with their children's devices. Invite codes expire after 24 hours and can only be used once. Parents are responsible for sharing codes securely with their intended family members.

6. Notifications

KindBit sends push notifications to family members when check-in messages are sent. Rate limiting is applied to prevent excessive notifications. By using the app, you consent to receiving these notifications on your device.

7. Subscription and Payments

KindBit offers a free trial period of 7 days. After the trial, continued use requires a paid subscription (monthly or yearly). Subscriptions are managed through the Apple App Store or Google Play Store. Cancellation and refund policies are governed by the respective platform's terms.

8. Intellectual Property

All content, design, logos, and software associated with KindBit are owned by Casa Del Sur LLC. You may not copy, modify, distribute, or create derivative works from any part of the app without written permission.

9. Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. Please review our Privacy Policy to understand how we collect, use, and protect your information.

10. Disclaimer of Warranties

KindBit is provided "as is" without warranties of any kind. We do not guarantee that the app will be uninterrupted, error-free, or completely secure. KindBit is a communication tool and is not a substitute for direct parental supervision or emergency services.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Casa Del Sur LLC shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising from your use of KindBit.

12. Changes to Terms

We may update these Terms of Service from time to time. We will notify users of significant changes through the app or via email. Continued use of KindBit after changes constitutes acceptance of the updated terms.

13. Termination

We reserve the right to suspend or terminate your account if you violate these terms. You may delete your account at any time through the app settings.
