

ASHWORTH

SPRING 27'

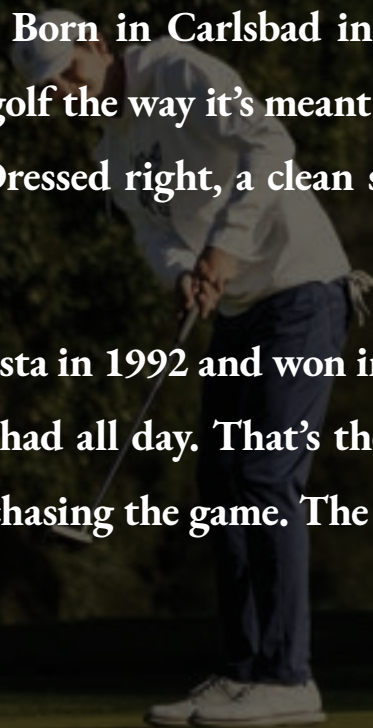

SINCE 1987

He's not trying to impress anyone. He showed up early, walked the back nine before the dew burned off, and already knows which way the wind breaks on 14. He's been playing this game long enough to know that the gear doesn't make you — but the right gear gets out of your way.

Ashworth was built for him. Born in Carlsbad in 1987, we've always made clothes for the guy who loves golf the way it's meant to be loved — not as a performance, but as a practice. Dressed right, a clean silhouette. Nothing extra. Nothing loud.

Fred Couples wore us to Augusta in 1992 and won in a way that felt inevitable — relaxed, unhurried, like he had all day. That's the Ashworth guy. He plays with that same ease. He's not chasing the game. The game is his.

It's in the walking.

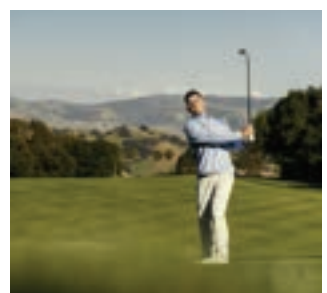

ASHWORTH

SUNRISE

There's a version of golf that exists before the course fills up. Early tee times, dew on the fairways, the sky still working through its first colors of the day. Sunrise is inspired by that window, the part of the round that belongs entirely to the people who showed up for it. Pastel yellow and light blue sit together the way morning light does, quiet and unhurried, neither competing for attention. It's a palette that doesn't announce itself. It just fits the moment.

TRADITION

Pink and green have been on a golf course longer than most brands have been in business. They don't need a narrative — they already have one. Tradition draws from that history without borrowing from it. The colorway is familiar in the way the best things in golf are familiar: earned, recognizable, and entirely at home between the ropes. This is the collection for the golfer who already knows what works and dresses accordingly.

TWILIGHT

Most rounds end before the course shows you its best hour. Twilight is inspired by the back nine when the sky shifts and the light goes flat and purple and the whole place feels like it belongs to whoever stayed. It's the least obvious palette in the SP27 lineup and the most distinctive. A spring colorway that earns its place by not following the obvious formula — cool, considered, and built for the end of the day worth sticking around for.

ASHWORTH

BRAND SHOP

Not every customer walks in for a polo. Brand Shop is for the ones who want the name on a hoodie, the Golfman on a tee, the brand worn the way people wear brands they actually like. These are the pieces that sit alongside the apparel and move on their own - graphic tees, sweaters and accesories that carry the Ashworth identity without needing a fairway to justify them. Built for the shop floor. Built for the golfer who's already a fan.

AUTHENTICS

A male golfer is captured in the middle of a golf swing. He is wearing a white cap, a dark olive green long-sleeved shirt, and light-colored trousers. He is holding a golf club with both hands. The background is a blurred field of tall, dry grass, suggesting a golf course setting. The word "AUTHENTICS" is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the middle of the image.

Every season has its new story. Authentics is the one that stays the same. These are the styles Ashworth has built its reputation on — the polos, the cuts, the colorways that show up year after year because they’ve earned the right to. No reinvention, no narrative.
