Prosecutor Announces Dismissal of Charges in State v. Maddox; Continued Prosecution in Related Case

Kokomo, Indiana – August 13, 2025 – Howard County Prosecutor Mark A. McCann announced today that Counts 1 through 4 in State v. Kevin Maddox have been dismissed in the interest of justice and the integrity of the prosecution.

“This decision reflects our obligation to ensure that every charge we pursue is supported by the strongest possible evidence and presented in a manner that serves both justice and the community’s trust,” McCann stated.

The decision clears the path for continued prosecution in the companion case, State v. Amber Brigham, which remains active and central to the investigation.

No further comment will be made at this time due to the ongoing nature of the proceedings.

Respectfully,

MARK A. McCANN
