

NOTABLE WEEKLY CALLS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1

THEFT: Officers responded to a theft complaint. Complainant believed items had been taken by an acquaintance. Incident remains under investigation.

JUVENILE PROTECTION: Officers received a report of possible child neglect. Investigation is ongoing.

ASSAULT & BATTERY: Officers responded to a report of a person who had possibly been hit by a car. Subject received medical treatment and the incident remains under investigation.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2

MENTAL: Officers responded to a report of a subject who was having an anxiety attack and suicidal ideations. Subject was evaluated by medical professionals and a safety plan was put in place with Northwest Connections.

DISORDERLY: Officers received a call of a subject running around with their pants down in public. Officers responded and the subject was cited.

THEFT: Two subjects were detained at a business for retail theft. One subject was transported to Chippewa County for a bail jumping warrant.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3

JUVENILE PROTECTION: Two separate incidents of reported sexual assault were investigated.

JUVENILE DISORDERLY CONDUCT: Two incidents of juvenile disorderly conduct were investigated and resolved.

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT: Officers received a report of a motor vehicle theft. The caller advised that the vehicle was stolen by an acquaintance. Officers were unable to initially apprehend the subject but subject was later summoned and faces multiple charges.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to a domestic incident. One subject was arrested.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4 CONTINUED

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT: Officers responded to two traffic accidents within the city limits: one in which a semi struck a light pole, and the other in which a vehicle collided with a snow plow.

MENTAL: Officers responded to a call indicating a subject may be suicidal. Officers made contact with the subject and worked with Northwest Connections to set up a safety plan.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to two reported domestic incidents within the city limits. In one incident, a subject was arrested. Officers also provided mutual aid for a domestic incident which was taking place in the county.

THEFT: Officers took a report of employee theft from a local gas station. Subject was cited.

MENTAL: Officers responded to a call of a subject with suicidal ideations. Officers worked with Northwest Connections to put a safety plan in place.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6

THEFT: Officers were dispatched to a store where a theft was in progress. They made contact with the subject who was subsequently arrested and cited.

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT: Subject reported that their vehicle was stolen overnight. Incident remains under investigation.

SUSPICION: A local hotel called dispatch and requested two of its occupants be removed by law enforcement. Upon arrival officers found one of the subjects had an active warrant; drugs and drug paraphernalia were also located. Both subjects were arrested.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to a gas station following a report of a domestic situation. After interviewing the parties involved, one subject was arrested.

NOTABLE WEEKLY CALLS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8

HARASSMENT: Officers investigated two reported incidents of harassment. Options were provided and incidents were documented.

JUVENILE PROTECTION: Several juveniles were counseled for sending inappropriate pictures.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS: Officers responded to four traffic accidents throughout the day.

MOTARIST ASSIST: Officers assisted three different motarists throughout the day.

THEFT: Officers investigated a report of theft of an ATV and a snowmobile. Both items were later recovered.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10

MENTAL: Officers performed a welfare check on a subject who had disclosed suicidal ideations to an acquaintance. Officers worked with Northwest Connections and Dunn County Human Services to create a safety plan.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT: Officers received a report of stolen vehicles from a business.

WELFARE: Officers conducted welfare checks on two different individuals. Both subjects were found to be OK.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT: Officers assisted with a one-vehicle accident in which the vehicle left the road and went through a fence.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to a reported domestic incident. Parties were involved in a verbal argument.

WELFARE: Officers completed four welfare checks on different individuals throughout the course of the day and night.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14

OWI: A vehicle was observed crossing the center line while driving. After investigation, the operator was arrested for OWI-3rd.

ASSAULT & BATTERY: Officers responded to a report of an unconscious male who had been pushed down some stairs. The male was transported via EMS. After investigating the incident, a subject was arrested.

MENTAL: Officers responded to a call of an argument that had resulted in someone possibly being cut with a knife. Upon arrival it was learned that a subject had been having suicidal ideations, and other members of the family had intervened. Officers conferred with Northwest Connections and determined that a voluntary commitment would be the best option.

NOTABLE WEEKLY CALLS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 15

DISORDERLY CONDUCT: Officers were called to a report of a large fight. Charges were referred.

SUSPICION: Two neighboring individuals reported seeing a subject near their homes. Incident remains under investigation.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT: Officers responded to a three-vehicle accident. One operator received a citation; another operator faces OAR charges and had a valid warrant that they were notified of.

FRAUD: Officers received a complaint of identity theft and fraud from a financial institution. Upon investigation, it was learned that the same person was arrested a few weeks prior for attempting to open a bank account with a different agency in Minnesota- also while posing as a different person. The subject faces multiple charges.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to a reported verbal domestic that had occurred while subjects were driving.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT: Officers responded for two disorderly conduct incidents. One incident occurred at a hotel and involved a verbal dispute between parties.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18

WELFARE CHECK: Officers performed a welfare check on a subject with suicidal ideations. The subject was put in contact with Northwest Connections and a safety plan was put in place.

CRIMINAL DAMAGE: Officers received a report of criminal damage from an individual whose tires had been slashed the night before.

JUVENILE PROTECTION: Officers received two different reports of juveniles who had viewed inappropriate materials.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19

ASSAULT & BATTERY: Officers responded to a 911 hangup call. Upon arrival they found one party leaving the scene, who became disorderly. Subsequent investigation detailed that this party had assaulted another party. The individual was arrested and faces multiple charges.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20

THEFT: Officers investigated three unrelated theft complaints.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 21

DISORDERLY CONDUCT: An altercation took place at a local establishment. Parties were separated and no further action was requested.

MENTAL: A subject called to report being a victim of previous childhood abuse. An officer met with the subject and provided information on how to proceed with filing a report and submitting statements.

NOTABLE WEEKLY CALLS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 22

DOMESTIC: Officers were dispatched to a residence after neighbors heard loud noises. One party had left the scene prior to officer arrival. Officers spoke with the party on scene and Wisconsin State Patrol assisted with locating the second party.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23

ACCIDENT: Officers responded to an EMS call in which a subject collapsed while walking outside. Officers performed CPR and rendered aid until medical help arrived.

JUVENILE PROTECTION: Officers took two reports of juvenile sexual assault.

THEFT: Officers received a report of a catalytic converter theft. The incident remains under investigation.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT: A witness called dispatch to report an accident, and observed the driver of the vehicle leave the scene. Officers located the operator, contacted the Menomonie Fire Department for medical assistance and are investigating the accident. Wisconsin State Patrol is investigating the potential of an OWI.

THEFT: Officers received a report of another catalytic converter theft.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25

DOMESTIC: A domestic incident was reported that had occurred the night before. Officers investigated and referred charges to the DA.

THEFT: Officers responded to a theft complaint at a local financial institution in which money from a subject's wallet was stolen after it was left on a counter. This incident remains under investigation.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26

SUSPICION: Officers received a report of suspicious activity in which it appeared that someone had made entry in to a residence. Officers arrived to find a door partially ajar, and due to the nature of the reported activity entered and cleared the home of any potential intruders. While no one was located, officers found that a pipe had burst and water was flooding the home. Officers contacted the Water Department and Excel Energy for assistance, and contact was made with the homeowner.

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to reports of a possible verbal domestic situation. Officers spoke with the parties involved.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27

ACCIDENT: A citizen contacted dispatch to report a subject shivering outside in need of assistance. Officers located the subject, who had slipped and partially fallen through some ice on Lake Menomin. Officers assisted with transporting the subject to a local healthcare institution for evaluation.

DOMESTIC: Officers responded to a reported domestic situation in progress in which two subjects were arguing over family matters. Upon arrival officers spoke with both parties. Information from this incident was passed on to the DA for consideration along with Dunn County Human Services and Probation & Parole.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 28

DISORDERLY CONDUCT: A subject called dispatch requesting officers remove a disorderly subject from their residence. Upon arrival the subject continued their disorderly behavior and attempted to re-enter the residence. The subject was subsequently arrested.