Make It Last For Life

DAY 12: Boxing Ring RESOLVING CONFLICTS BY FIGHTING FAIR

Describe in writing the last major conflict you faced with a loved one. Imagine that you're a spectator, even a commentator, and analyze the fight. Was it a fair fight? Were ground rules maintained? How would you describe the fighting styles of the contenders? Who won the match? Was it a clean win?

Spend time in prayer, asking God to show you when and how you look to other people to meet needs that only He can meet. Ask Him to provide what you need most from Him.

Which of your present relationships involve conflicts that would require you to step into the ring if you knew you only had one month to live?
