Make It Last For Life

DAY 25: Sticks & Stones Using Eternal Building Materials

Grab some paper and a pen, and number from one to five. List five convictions that you hold and believe are timeless. Go back over each one and reflect on its basis. How is it reinforced by God's Word? By the lives of others? By our own experience?

Number from one to five again, this time listing character traits you would like to be remembered for after you've left this earth. How have you seen God cultivate these in your life? Which ones does He seem to be concentrating on right now?

Finally, make one more list from one to five. Write down the names of five people—not family and not co-workers—who share your convictions and commitment to godly character. How often do you see each one? How could you encourage them? In what areas could they hold you more accountable?
