Make It Last For Life

DAY 21

Mulligan

Playing with Integrity

Take a sheet of paper and draw a large circle in the center of it. Divide the circle into a pie with 8 pieces. Then label each section with an area of your life (for example, family, work, hobbies, marriage, finances, church, etc.). Are you living out your values in each of these areas?

Now draw a smaller circle in the middle of the pie, and write God in the smaller circle. This represents God's place in a life of integrity. God doesn't want a slice of your life; He wants to be the first part of every slice. Whether it's hobbies or your marriage, God wants to be the first consideration in everything you do.

How would you rate yourself on the integrity meter? Are you the same person at home and at the office? With your family and friends? Ask God to open your eyes to any areas you need to change and for the strength of character to do it.
