Is there a particular date or month you hope the potential podcast episode will air? If so, when?

How did you hear about THE NOTICE?

What ways (social media, website, etc.) could you help promote your episode?

If you are an author, are you willing to give me a complimentary copy of your book to read ahead of time and then offer as a give - away to our listeners? If there is another give away possibility, please list here.

What would you like to talk about on THE NOTICE? (Book, subject, music, etc.) Why?
