¹Last Name, A.A., ^{1*}Last-Name, B.B., ²Last Name, C.C. & ²So-on, D.D.

*corresponding author

¹e-mail address of corresponding author, Institution, country

² Institution, country

The main text, like the author names uses Times New Roman font, 14 point for the Author names and 12 point for the remainder of the abstract. Type or paste your text into this file, but remember to keep the page margins the same as is set here which is 1 inch (2.5 cm) all round. Paragraphs are justified (straight-edged) on both left and right.

Use single-line spacing and leave a line gap between paragraphs. This helps your text to be read easily. If you would like to insert a figure you can do so. Use the insert picture command and paste special as an enhanced metafile for ease of handling. If you want, you can set the text to flow around the figure, but do remember to include a figure caption.

If you prefer to organize your extended abstract with headings (sections), the heading styles are defined below:

HEADING LEVEL 1

Heading Level 3

The abstract deadline is ~~January 20~~ February 3, 2023. You need to receive a formal acceptance of your abstract in order to have possibility for making a presentation at the 2023 DSPTS webinar week.

The limit for length of abstract is maximum of 1500 words and three figures or tables (not three figures and three tables). Abstracts that do not meet these formatting requirements will be returned. The organizing committee reserves the right to edit abstracts for making them suitable for review process and for publishing them on website.
