

Comedian Dr. Jagdish Trivedi gave a unique gift to his wife on her birthday and built a government school on his own

Dr. Jagdish Trivedi: Comedian, writer and social worker Dr. Jagdish Trivedi celebrated his wife's birthday in a very unique way.

Rajudan Gadhvi: Gujarat's pride comedian, writer and social worker Dr. Dr Jagdish Trivedi has celebrated his wife's birthday in a very unique way. Living in Surendranagar, the artist has traveled to many countries. He has recently made a unique donation to Jhalawar. Dr. who gave up earning money after completing 50 years of life. Jagdish Trivedi has renamed a government primary school in Halwad town of Morbi district after his wife Nitaben. Not only that, the school was inaugurated on his wife's birthday and gave a unique birthday present

The school was inaugurated by the President of SGVP, Ahmedabad, P.P. Madhavapriya Swami said that it is as beautiful as Jagdish's clothes. Shahbuddin Rathore, who was the chief guest at the function and was awarded the Padma Shri by world-renowned comedian, said in his typical style, "Someone ask me what is your contribution in the field of comedy?" So I will proudly say that Jagdish Trivedi is my contribution

Renowned narrator Rajnikumar Pandya, who was present as a special guest on the occasion, said that the development of Jagdish Trivedi from a common man to a generous social worker is commendable

Dr. Jagdish Trivedi while giving information about this historical school said that this school was built 156 years ago by Rajvi Ranmal Singhji of Halwad in his Darbargarh. Started on 30/7/18. Then on 12/6/18, after receiving a donation of land from the then MLA Labhshankar Maganlal Shukla, the government built the school. The Bhumi Pujan was performed by Mahatma Vinobaji, the pioneer of Bhudanayagna

PHOTO OF THE SCHOOL

A memorial with the names of all the freedom fighters of Halwad taluka has also been erected in Patangan of this school for years. When such a historic school fell into disrepair after 65 years, I had the good fortune to build a new building in 2020. It is our family's fortune that this school got my wife's name. On this occasion, published by Vivekgram-Mandvi Kutch, Dr. Two books by Jagdish Trivedi were also released