Georgia DOT's February Awards

Georgia DOT's February Awards Focus on Resurfacing, Rehabilitation, and Reconstruction Projects

The Georgia Department of Transportation (Georgia DOT) has awarded multiple resurfacing, rehabilitation, and reconstruction projects across the state to enhance roadway conditions and improve safety.

Operational Security: Combatting Rising Construction Crime With AI

A recent ProVigil survey revealed that 36% of businesses polled (including construction respondents) said AI can be a helpful tool to combat physical security incidents, yet only 7% are doing so. Additionally, nearly a quarter of respondents fear rising crime in the year ahead.

Look Good, Feel Better, Build Great: Developing Better Workwear Options for Women in the Skilled Trades

Women's participation in the skilled trades has steadily increased in recent years, rising from 8.9% in 2010 to 11% today. However, this progress has not come without challenges—one being access to functional, durable, and comfortable workwear. Historically, jobsite apparel has been designed with only male workers in mind, leaving tradeswomen with clothing that compromises fit, mobility, and overall functionality.
