

Quilts for Kids:

Volunteer quilters transforming fabrics into patchwork quilts that comfort children in need

Northeast Georgia Chapter

July 2015

It's been a busy month at our house with our usual duties and some special time for celebrations. We partied to celebrate the June birthdays of two grandsons and my husband and attended a bridal shower for our grandson's soon-to-be lovely bride. Their wedding will be on July 4th and we all are so excited as we wait their marriage day. Below are 3 photos I'd like to share with you.

Now for the business of comforting kids with quilts...we had a phenomenal month! Just look at the photos on pages 5, 6, and 7 showing the quilts that were turned in this month. This is so important to refuel our storage of quilts which is missing 72 quilts. Yes, we gave away 72 quilts this month. 30 to NE Georgia Med Ctr, 15 to Egleston, 15 to Scottish Rite, 5 to Gateway Domestic Violence Shelter and 7 to Family Promise. This makes our total for 2015...275.

And for those who haven't accompanied me on a delivery of quilts to the Pediatric floor of NE Ga Med Ctr, I wanted to share this photo of the hallway there. Isn't this a bright and colorful place?

Want to go with me one day? Let me know, I go every Friday at 9:30am.

Enjoy July as we cancel a couple of workshops due to family vacations, etc. Keep sewing and we'll see you soon.

Two year old Nick and his dad are relaxing in the play room with the Lil Monster quilt.

Betty,

This is a very small treat
in comparison to the quilts
and compassion you share with the patients and their families. Thank you!

in June.

Look at these two cuties I met on June 19th. On the right is Mason who is 19 months old.

Below is Carlos who is 6 years old.

The quilts brought smiles to both of them.

Thanks!

This month's finished quilts.

Are you ready to celebrate the 4th? Here's what I made for the occasion.
Happy Birthday America!!!
