

Quilts for Kids:

Volunteer quilters transforming fabrics into patchwork quilts that comfort children in need

Northeast Georgia Chapter

March 2019

As usual, we've had another busy month at our chapter. While attending the Hall County Quilt Guild's retreat in Covington, GA, Sharon W. and I visited the Cotton Boll Quilt Guild's meeting and shared our story with their members. While they have been sewing some of our kits, they are interested in continuing this effort and making Quilts for Kids their community service project. They also want to be the point of contact for signing out our kits to anyone in the area. We left 28 kits with them and brought home 12 finished quilts. The quilts from this area are designated for the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta hospitals.

Also during the retreat, I signed out 13 kits to Hall County members. What about that? 41 kits signed out in a couple of days. (see page 2)

During March I will be implementing a new procedure to deliver quilts to NE Georgia Medical Center. Lorrie K. and I have been alternating the Friday deliveries. Jane K. and Chris A. live in the Gainesville area and have agreed to help us by taking one Friday each month. I am grateful to these ladies for stepping up.

Below are five quilts made at the Nicholson workshop. They will be delivered to Piedmont Athens Regional Hospital soon.

Until next month...
