

Quilts for Kids:

Volunteer quilters transforming fabrics into patchwork quilts that comfort children in need

Northeast Georgia Chapter February 2023

Changes Continue for our Northeast Chapter!!

Events in January consisted of more organizing of Quilts for Kids materials and converting our basement into a quilting studio. Mark retired December 31st so he is now on board fulltime. We had our first Chunking session at our home, which seemed to be a success as we now have hundreds of kits ready to send out to shops and guilds.

We will be holding our next workshop at Gainesville 1st Baptist Church on Thursday, February 2 from 10 to 2. Because we have so many kits, I am asking those attending to come prepared to sew, quilt, bind, or cut sheets into 6 1/2 blocks. So please plan to bring your machine and any basic supplies you may need.

As you attend your guild meetings or visit your local quilt stores, please encourage everyone to finish and return the kits we have out. Hospitals are experiencing an increase in patients and really need additional quilts at this time.

Please read the thank you note, on the next page, that we received from the parent of one of our recipients'. Folks, this is why we do what we do. There is no greater reward then the smile of a child!!

Last, I want to thank Betty Wright for her many years of service and commitment to Quilts for Kids!! She has been an exemplary leader. I hope she will continue to be an integral part of our Quilts for Kids Chapter!

THANKS Betty and we all LOVE YOU!!!!

A Quilt for my son Jonah

I found your website online. I just wanted to say thank you and Elaine A. for making my sons quilt. My son was hospitalized at children's Atlanta and he got this blanket and it really made him happy to have a nice blanket at the hospital he was on a ventilator and ecmo we were there for a long time. It had puppies on it and when he received it just made him smile. He's our miracle baby and he is finally home and still snuggles with his special quilt and it's so adorable how he covers himself up with it so adorable. Thank you so much again.

Love,

The Knight Family!
