Happy Halloween

Today is my favorite kind of day. Spooky... So far it's been a great day, filled with surprises. First, I went to the hospital to join the Boo Crew to visit the patients. (selfie on the left)

The Boo Crew consisted of 5 from Quilts for Kids, (Abit M., Lorrie K., Carol J., Marilyn J. and me) 2 from Lanier Village Estates (Patti G., and Lawanda McD.) and 4 employees of Northeast Georgia Medical Center. Here's the group photo below, right. We visited 9 pediatric patients on the Peds Floor. Seven were in isolation but we were allowed to open each door and speak into the room and hand the quilt to the mom. Next we visited the current patients in Infusion Center on the first floor. All the staff were in costume so adding to that was fun. The adult patients seemed to like the attention and silliness.

Please read on to learn of the chapter's upcoming news. November looks like it will be a busier month than usual.

Announcing the
NEW Gainesville Evening Workshop
of Quilts for Kids, NE Georgia Chapter

Thanks to Tracy Johnson for initiating this opportunity for an evening workshop in Gainesville

Where?

City Church in Downtown Gainesville
311 Jesse Jewel Parkway, Suite 101
Gainesville, GA 30501
(next to Wild Wing Café)

When?

Second Monday of each month at 6:30 P.M.

This will begin on Monday, November 11, 2019

*Please join us for cutting, sewing and fellowship
as we make quilts for kids in our community.*

On November 21st we will be visiting the Hall County Optimist Club to update them on our continued success. This will be the third time giving a presentation and update to this group who has been so supportive of our chapter during our 7-1/2 years of existence. It will be great to see all our friends again.

To celebrate my stepdaughter's birthday and take the opportunity to gather all of our family together for a Fall Festival, we hosted the party at our house and I want to share the best parts with you.
