

Quilts for Kids:

Volunteer quilters transforming fabrics into patchwork quilts that comfort children in need

Northeast Georgia Chapter

July 2016

June brought many surprises and good times. Our collection of finished and donated quilts was very high. I am not sure of the exact numbers for all workshops, but the work is very appreciated. My stock was getting low and now the shelves are full again.

The second order of fabric purchased with money from the Jackson EMC Foundation grant was received on June 24th. It was 174 yards of precious toddler fabrics, sports and girly prints along with many coordinating and backing fabrics. We will be assembling kits from these goodies soon.

For those of our supporters who enable us to carry-on with our quilting passion, I want to personally Thank YOU. We love you and appreciate all your support as we travel from home to our favorite "workshops and project days" to fashion our creations.

My personal valet is hubby Harold who celebrated a birthday this month. It was my pleasure to plan and execute our family cookout to commemorate his day. Thanks for being my "body guard and hunky heavy lifter."

Enjoy our Nation's birthday as we celebrate our freedom!

At the Family Life Center workshop on June 2nd, we met Raleigh, the daughter of Carly who is now working there. Carly asked what were we doing and we explained, "Making quilts for kids in the hospital."

Well when Raleigh was 5 months old, she had received a quilt, and sure enough, I checked my records and it was on March 22, 2013.

Carly and Raleigh both said how much they appreciated the quilt and that it is still loved and cherished by them.

Doesn't that warm your heart to know that our work is special? They send their thanks to all of us!

On June 24th, Margaret McG joined me delivering quilts to NGMC. She brought 2 red/white/blue quilts to give and one small quilt suitable for a doll.

This is 4 year old Autumn and her doll showing off the quilts Miss Margaret made for them.

The other RWB quilt was left for a 9 year old boy who was in surgery. Hope that he likes the surprise when he returns to his room.
