Changes for 2022

It is with a sad heart that I announce the closing of our Hopewell UMC workshop. We will not meet there in December but in January will we have a new home for our meetings. Ladies from Hopewell met with me in 2012 to ask if I'd hold a Quilts for Kids' workshop and we began meeting on every second Tuesday. The space was perfect, the ladies who participated through the years had such kind hearts and were willing to help us make quilts. The amount of quilts brought in over the years was unbelievable.

We will be moving nearby to the Hall County Library Murrayville and we will become one of the library's programs. That means they will advertise our workshop in hopes to draw more volunteers to help. A couple of other quilting groups have used this space in the past so as the word spreads, we should grow quickly. Below is a schedule of meeting dates. Please note that the second Tuesday was not available each month so we have the second Thursday in those cases. Then in May, we will meet on the second Tuesday from then on.
