THREE UNIQUE MAGIC STYLES

Harry, The Influencer

Harry specialises in magic of the mind.

Through his studies of both human psychology and body language, Harry can pick up on subtle clues (or “tells”, as he calls them) that you subconsciously send him, allowing him to predict the future, control your actions, and tell you exactly what you’re thinking.

Harry is a master of sleight of mind. No matter what you keep locked away, he will find it!

Theo, The Card Shark

Theo is a cardist.

A simple deck of 52 playing cards can perform wonders when in Theo’s hands.

Watching Theo handle and manipulate the deck is like watching a ballet, but that is nothing compared to the jaw-dropping magic he can perform with them!

Dean, The Manipulator

Dean is an award-winning magician, his expertise lie in manipulation.

Studying the magic of past masters, Dean’s magic is smooth and effortless.

You will be watching in disbelief as things vanish, float and transform right before your eyes!

Watching Dean will leave you believing you’ve witnessed real magic, which is why he was awarded Young Magician of the Year by the world famous Magic Circle.

THE 4MG SHOW

When the boys come together on stage you are treated to a show that is fast-paced, modern, entertaining and, most importantly, fun.

The 4MG show is the perfect after-dinner entertainment, with show length customisable from anywhere between 15-90 minutes depending on your requirements.

The show combines each of the boy's skills to deliver magic, mind reading and art in a refreshing style - the perfect way to impress your guests and clients.

The 4MG show also works perfectly for trade shows and product launches.

PERFECT FOR ALL EVENTS

Trade Shows, Conferences and Product Launches

At these events, the idea is to stand out from your competitors and by booking 4MG you will definitely achieve that!

4MG will help you attract, and more importantly, hold the crowd keeping them entertained while getting your message across. They will then pass over to your sales team at the end of the performance.

4MG can even customise their presentation to focus on your USPs, creating unique magic and giveaways to help promote your company and ensure you're remembered.

Brand Ambassadors

Finding the right face for your brand is difficult, but with their fresh, fashionable and unique appearance; 4MG are the perfect choice.

4MG are available to be the face of your brand, helping you promote to your target audience and build brand awareness.

4MG can also add a touch of magic to your advertisements and social media campaigns.

Intimate Private/Corporate Events and Parties

Hosting a smaller event? 4MG can still be there to make it memorable, with the option of booking the whole trio or an individual member.

At intimate events, 4MG will use close-up magic, which is a style suited to smaller audiences. Close-up magic is the perfect way to entertain and break the ice at any drinks reception, work event, or gala dinners and is what won 4MG four yeses and a standing ovation from the judges and the entire Palladium audience during their BGT audition!
