ALL-STAR LINE UP ★★★★★★★★★★

Childers has opened for Vince Gill, G.B. King, Robert Cray, Third Eye Blind, and Leann Rimes, and headlined the Rock & Roll hall of Fame. Childers was just inducted into the ALM Nashville Musicians Hall of Fame as the 2026 Honoree.

★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★

“Walkaway Joe,” recorded by Trisha Yearwood and Don Henley, was a significant milestone in Greg’s career. The song went on to earn him a Grammy nomination. Barnhill also had a crossover smash with “House of Love” for Amy Grant and Vince Gill. He garnered critical acclaim with the 2014 single, Gary Allan’s “It Ain’t The Whiskey.”

★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★

David’s songs have been recorded and/or covered on albums by Badfinger, Bettye LaVette, Billy Burnette, Dr. Hook, Fleetwood Mac, Gregg Allman Band, Julianne Hough, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Tim McGraw, Roy Orbison, and more. The very first artist he ever produced was Eddie Rabbitt, whom he met through Eddie’s buddy and co-writer, Even Stevens.
