Structure, governance and management

Governing document

Ramgarhia Sikh Gurdwara, Slough is an unincorporated association and governed by a deed of trust and a constitution adopted on 24 October 1993, as amended by Charity Commissioners scheme dated 7 February 1997. This was further amended on 16 January 2000. It was registered with the Charity Commission in February 1997.

The general management and the administration of the charity is the responsibility of the Executive Committee.

The Trustees hold the charity's property including land as holding trustees.

The members of the Executive Committee are elected each alternate year from the membership of the Gurdwara.

Structure, governance and management

The charity has currently three trustees who hold the charity's property. A management committee, who manage the charity on day to day basis, consists of 13 office holders and 12 other members, who hold office for two years. The charity is examining ways to improve its management structure.

Risk Management

The members of executive committee have assessed the risks the charity faces including the likelihood of the risks happening and the measures taken to manage them. Special attention has been taken to ensure that those who work with children and or other vulnerable groups

Objectives and activities

Our aims

The objects of the charity are set out in the charity's governing document and are summarised as follows:

To promote the Sikh religion in Slough and its adjoining area by the following means and such other means as the Trustees and the Executive Committee consider to be appropriate taking into account the Charity Commission's guidance on the public benefit in the Advancement of Religion for the Public Benefit and have regard to it in their administration of the charity. In doing so, Gurdwara (The Temple) provides a benefit to the public by:-

1. The maintenance of Gurdwara and the Sikh Centre;
2. The celebration of Sikh religious festivals;
3. The conduct of marriage and funeral rites in accordance with Sikh religious observance;
4. The establishment of a library containing books in both Punjabi and English on Sikh religion, history and culture, we have over 300 books in the library;
5. The RECC (education centre) is open to all the public from young children to pensioners; activities range from indoor sports and multi-activities and other activities including open days etc. The use of RECC is subsidised for all.
6. To develop mutual understanding and harmonious relationships with other communities, faith groups and charitable organisations.
7. The average number of people attending Gurdwara is average of 1,500 per week and number of people making use of the RECC is 200 children & adults.

These are pursued in a variety of ways including organising formal talks, seminars, training and other educational activities. Religious services are held daily and free vegetarian meals (langar) are provided to members and worshippers daily. We are a part of the local inter-faith group.

Volunteers

The Gurdwara is grateful for the efforts of its many members and other volunteers who are involved in the provision of service, charity events, running and maintenance of kitchen and fund raising.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The whole country went through the COVID-19 pandemic between 23 March 2020 and the year end. The activities were curtailed to comply with the regulations. The Gurdwara was open for personal worship, for funerals and few weddings. In normal time the following Charitable activities take place.

1. Every Christmas, Gurdwara feeds vegetarian meals to homeless people.
2. In April, Gurdwara organises Nagar Kirtan (Religious procession), around 15,000 people from all communities regularly attend. This procession promotes public awareness of the Sikh Religion and is used by other community to promote social cohesion.
3. Gurdwara provides free educational classes for the teaching of traditional musical instruments at the weekends by professional and qualified teacher who are paid by the Gurdwara.
4. The Gurdwara provides free Punjabi language teaching up to A Levels on Wednesday. Punjabi is taught by professional and qualified teachers who are paid by the Gurdwara. Punjabi School plays an important part of maintaining both language and history of the faith.
5. The Gurdwara provides sports facilities for hockey, cricket, martial arts and yoga classes
6. As is previous years, Gurdwara continued to support other charities and social causes.

Financial Review

To meet the short term liquidity needs of the Charity, the Trustees participated in the Government backed Bounce Back Loan scheme. A loan of £50,000 was drawn down. There were no arrangement fees payable on this loan. Furthermore, for the first 12 months no interest was payable.

Reserves policy

Currently the trustees consider that the level of free reserves (net assets excluding fixed assets) is adequate level. The trustees therefore consider that the levels of unrestricted fund reserves are sufficient.

Results for the year

Due to the pandemic the total income in the year decreased by £240,744 to £194,818. The total expenditure for the year excluding impairment of fixed assets, and depreciation also decreased in the year from £494,892 to £273,785. The net deficit in funds for the year was £78,967 thereby decreasing the unrestricted funds to £2,792,655 of which £2,770,214 is invested in the charity's total fixed assets. The charity has net current assets of £22,441

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to financial statements

Future Plans

These include the improvements to management structure and the development of required child and vulnerable persons procedures and the appointment of a designated officer for the safeguarding of these persons. The Gurdwara buildings and overflow car park of approximately 3 acres needs to be updated. The management committee has decided to invest in improving the mechanical and electrical systems, including upgrading CCTV security and fire alarm systems. The long term plans include the development of an old people's home.

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Charity law requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the income and expenditure. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993, the applicable Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees for the purposes of charity law who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out page 1.

The Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of Ramgarhia Sikh Gurdwara, Slough

I report to the trustees on my examination of the financial statements of Ramgarhia Sikh Gurdwara, Slough ('the charity') for the year ended 31 December 2020 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and related notes.

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's financial statements carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since the trust gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of ACCA, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- the financial statements do not accord with those records; or
- the financial statements do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.
