Maps of Antiquity

U.S. 1877

Now over 30 years in existence, Maps of Antiquity is thriving and enjoying ongoing expansion. Our current collection of maps, prints and charts includes more than 18,000 items, most of which are on our website. Our goal is to remain small enough to offer personalized service to each of our customers while still growing and finding new and interesting antique maps, charts, prints, and postcards to share with our customers, and new ways to preserve these pieces for many years to come.

I create custom tile murals, painted on white porcelain or ceramic tile and fired in my kiln. Once completed the tiles can then be installed in a kitchen or bath for a permanent, durable piece of art. Stone tile is another option. In this process the tile is painted and then sealed rather than fired in a kiln.
