Welcome to the AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION!

Welcome to the American Business Women's Association (ABWA)! We are thrilled to have you join our community of dynamic, professional women.

The mission of ABWA is to bring together businesswomen from diverse occupations and provide opportunities for growth—both personally and professionally. As a member, you have access to a wide array of resources designed to help you thrive in your career.

As a busy working woman, we understand the importance of finding opportunities that support your growth and career success. By joining ABWA, you are now part of a national organization that is committed to empowering women like you. Here's what you can look forward to as a member:

- Stay Informed: Keep up with industry updates, market-relevant insights, and technological advancements through ABWA's communication channels.
- Join a Supportive Community: Connect with thousands of like-minded women who are dedicated to helping each other succeed.
- Take Charge of Your Goals: Gain access to tools that help you set and track your personal and professional goals, empowering you to achieve them.

This guide will provide you with all the information you need to take full advantage of your ABWA membership. We encourage you to explore the opportunities that await you inside America's leading professional Association for women.

As ABWA celebrates its 76th year of empowering women, we're excited to have you with us on this journey. We hope you will find ABWA to be a place where you can learn, connect, and grow throughout your career.

Thank you for being a part of our community. Together, we can achieve great things!

Warm regards,

ELIZABETH JOHNSON
Executive Director

Set of Core Values for the American Business Women's Association

Our core values form the foundation upon which the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) was established in 1949. These values reflect the ethos of our culture and have been integral to building a lasting, supportive community for generations of women in the workplace.

1. Selfless Leadership – Be committed to doing the right thing, always. Be transparent in your actions even when no one is looking!
2. Building Community – Be committed to creating sustainable ABWA communities where women can connect, learn, and grow together.
3. Value and Seek Diversity – Be committed to recruiting new members from diverse cultures, ages, work industries and experiences.
4. Manage for Innovation and Excellence – Be committed to original thinking and delivering excellence in everything you do.
5. Lifelong Learning – Be committed to enhancing your own business knowledge, skills, and acumen. Be unafraid to make mistakes, iterate, err and try again.
6. Focus on Facts and Own Results – Be committed to using "data" to drive your decisions and actions and be accountable for your performance, good and bad.
7. Choose to Make a Difference – Be committed to unlocking a member's potential and inspiring/motivating her to become the best version of herself.
8. Celebrate – Be committed to celebrating members' achievements.

ABWA's Proud Code of Conduct

The Proud Code of Conduct was developed as a means of guiding all members in making ethical decisions. The broad statements of the Code of Conduct that are listed below are not expected to cover all conduct for all situations. This is why the Proud Code of Conduct was created as a living and fluid code.

- As an ABWA member, I will serve as a goodwill Ambassador for the American Business Women's Association.
- As an ABWA member, I will adhere to the Association's Bylaws and comply with the Association's Brand Guidelines.
- As an ABWA member, I will not use my personal power or influence to advance my own interests.
- As an ABWA member, I will not allow my personal beliefs or convictions to alienate other members, prospective members, and sponsors at any level of the ABWA organization (local, regional or national).
- As an ABWA member, I will always treat member colleagues, the ABWA National Team, guests, speakers, vendors and sponsors with dignity and respect.

The mission of the American Business Women's Association is to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition.
