Comenzamos el viernes 17 de febrero a las 6:00PM en la Iglesia. Continuaremos rezando las Estaciones cada viernes a las 6pm.

TE ESPERAMOS, AHI UN LUGAR PARA TI

FROM THE DESK:

February the 2nd in which we celebrate the “Presentation of the Lord,” many people cook tamales in other meals and share to one another as a sign of Jesus who come for all of us to save us.

February the 3rd the church celebrates saint Blaise, and in this Mass, we blessed the throats. Every Saturday except the easter Saturday we will celebrate each month the first Saturday of the month, expecting that cursillistas pray the Sabatina before mass.

I am inviting you to participate in the activity “POUNDS FOR GOD,” it is spiritual activity in which we promote fasting or sacrifices. We start on Ash Wednesday and finish on easter Saturday. You come to the office before Ash Wednesday, weigh in and on the first week of easter you come back to office weigh in again and the person who loss more weighs will win 15 dollars for lost pound.

I hope that we can take the Lenten season seriously. To change our spiritual life starts from our normal way of live of lives. If we do not change in our daily lives, means that we need to pray and work more.

BIBLE INSIGHT: WHAT IS THE NAME OF GOD ACCORDING TO JESUS?

Jesus never used the Old Testaments names that Israelites used to name God. Jesus called God “Father,” his Father. The prophet Malachi named God “Father, in chapter 2:10 he wrote: “Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why, then, we break faith with each other.” Remember that God is more than his name; the Israelites never called God by his name because they thought that the name limits the person. In John 11:41 Jesus gave thanks to the Father for hear him. Jesus taught to his disciples to pray the “Our Father;” in Luke 11:2 we can read: “He said to his disciples; when you pray, say: Father hallowed be your name... in John 17:1 Jesus called God his Father again: “Father the hour has come. In Luke 3:22 the Father recognized Jesus as his son: “and a voice came from heaven: You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased. At the end of his life Jesus called God his Father, we can read it in Luke 23:46: “Jesus cried out in a loud voice: “Father, into your hands, I command my spirit.”

Jesús no se limitó a enseñarnos a orar de palabra sino también con el ejemplo. Le vemos a menudo en oración. Nos da ejemplo para que le sigamos. Está escrito: «Se fue a un lugar solitario.» Y en otro lugar: «Se fue a la montaña a orar y pasó toda la noche en oración.» (Lc 6,12) Si él, que era sin pecado, oraba sin cesar, con más razón los pecadores debemos orar. Si pasaba la noche en oración, con más razón nosotros debemos velar y orar sin cesar. El silencio es el instante privilegiado de la oración, de la unión con el amado.

San Juan de la Cruz

Jesus did not limit himself to teaching us to pray by word but also by example. We often see him in prayer. He sets an example for us to follow. It is written: "He went to a lonely place." And in another place: "He went to the mountain to pray and spent the whole night in prayer." (Luke 6:12) If he, who was without sin, prayed without ceasing, with more reason we sinners should pray. If he spent the night in prayer, it was even more reason we should watch and pray without ceasing. Silence is the privileged moment of prayer, of union with a loved one. St. John of the Cross
