For the second successive season, Tilbury exited the FA Cup after starting the tie strongly, before playing large parts of the game with 10 men. Tilbury started strongly before going down to 10 men in 18 minutes, denting any chance of progression.

After 2 minutes David Knight saw his effort deflected over from a quick corner. As the game settled, both full backs Ryan Boswell and Eljay Worrell were able to get forward.

Following a few yellow cards, the game exploded on 18 when David Knight was shown a straight red card for something he said to the referee.

Coggeshall grew into the game and saw Tevan Allen blaze over before taking the lead on 39 when a good through ball fell to Nnamdi Nwachuku who scored.

At the break Ola Ogunwamide came on at the expense of Oli Spooner and injected some fire into Tilbury's play. The home side went close on 52 when Brampton saw his header strike the bar.

Coggeshall were in charge and put Tilbury on the back foot. On 81 the tie was over when a quick move up the pitch found Simmonds who slotted home. Matt Price saw his effort well saved by Girling, before the same player blazed over when it was easier to score. The last action of the game saw Marlon Agyakwa fire his free kick wide.

Tilbury start league action next Saturday when they make a trip to Cambridge City.
