Following a defeat during the week, it was back to Chadfields for Tilbury this weekend as we hosted newly promoted side, Little Oakley. George and Jack made a couple of changes to the side which suffered defeat on Tuesday, as Alfie Fry, Jake Brocklebank and Rasheed Salau all came into the starting 11.

The visitors came close to opening the scoring early on when George Davis flicked his rebound goalward. However, the effort was denied by the crossbar.

The deadlock was eventually broken in the 41st minute, when Bobby Rea's cross from the left-hand side was blocked by the arm of Noah Collars. Joe Elliott stepped up to take the penalty, and he made no mistake, firing past Brad Cook for the lead.

On the stroke of halftime, Tilbury doubled their advantage through Jon Nzengo, who was playing a more advanced midfield role this afternoon. Nzengo received the ball on the edge of the area, took a touch to set himself, and rifled his strike into the top right corner.

The hosts came close to extending their lead further, once again through Jon Nzengo, who this time saw his rifled effort denied by the woodwork.

The game was finally put to bed in the 88th minute, when the hosts were awarded another penalty as Ben Allen was brought down in the area. The pressure still didn't faze Joe Elliott, as the defender hammered another strike into the top corner.

That was all the action at Chadfields, and Tilbury came away from the game with three points and a clean sheet. The Dockers are back in action on Tuesday 22nd September, when we host Canvey Island in a 7.45pm kick-off.
