

DEUTERONOMY 28:12 · KJV

“For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.”

THE FIRM

A global investment firm built as a capital allocation institution for Africa's next century of growth.

An ark for value and purpose.

Goneke Investment Group (GIG) is a global investment firm specialising in transformative investments across the critical systems that power economies: energy, advanced manufacturing, critical minerals beneficiation, aerospace, transportation, telecommunications, digital infrastructure, and precision agriculture.

Since our founding in 2022 in Johannesburg, GIG has grown into a capital allocation institution, an economic development platform, and an industrial sovereignty builder. Today the Firm operates across six offices on four continents, through five interconnected business lines — an enterprise built to transform latent African potential into productive economic value.

“Noah was instructed to build the ark from gopher wood — precise, enduring, and divinely appointed. Goneke Investment Group is built with the same intentionality, wisdom, and strength. In a world of uncertainty and upheaval, we are an ark for value and purpose, preserving them through every storm.”

PHILOSOPHY & CULTURE

Growth · Abundance · Prosperity

At GIG, we are committed to engineering sustainable abundance by aligning purpose with performance. Our investment strategy is built around driving strong earnings relative to capital deployed, through disciplined execution and transformative growth.

We embed this in three primary ways. First, we invest in companies and systems that close Africa's productive gap directly. Second, we invest in companies committed to transitioning toward greater productive capacity. Third, we engage governments, communities, and clients to align capital with long-term national outcomes.

finance, build, and secure the critical

THE SYMBOL · THE SHEAF

Every mark carries a memory. Ours is a sheaf of grain — gathered, bound, and upright — drawn from the biblical story of Joseph, whose visionary foresight preserved nations through famine, and whose wisdom is remembered still.

The sheaf is not mere decoration. It declares a conviction: that true wealth is cultivated, not extracted. What is planted with patience and gathered in season endures — and prosperity, rooted in purpose, nourishes generations yet to come.
