September Guild Meeting

September 14th, 2022

Doors open at 6:00pm—starting at 6:30pm

From the President

September is here! August is over... too bad the heat isn't over as well. Never-the-less we are ready for the rest of the year. IMPORTANT We're going to switch September and November programs this year. Bring your sewing machines and your scissors with your name on them on September 14, because we will be doing cuddle quilts. Also we will still take a few minutes for a short meeting to vote on the budget at the September meeting. Please take a look at the budget published in the newsletter and be ready to vote.

Looking forward to a great rest of the year. In October our guest speaker will be Karen Brow-Meir, and of course the retreat is the last weekend of October.

At the November meeting we will have a make and take with a Christmas theme led by Maureen.

Hope everyone got their 20.5" x 20.5" block of the Month finished. This is going to be interesting to see this month's results and the coming months instructions and fun to see the final results next year. Big thank you to Robin.

There are rumors the Raffle quilt is close to being ready but is for sure being worked on.

Nancy Higgins has updated the roster and added our new members so if you haven't already please check and make sure your information is correct. Hope to see you all. September 14th.

Cheryle

July Program Pictures: Sue Bouchard

Sue Bouchard has been quilting since she was 12 and sewing since she was 4. She began quilting before rotary cutters and self healing mats! Sue spent over 25 years at Quilt in a Day. She loves making and designing modern quilts. Her passion is teaching and inspiring others on their creative journey! It was a very enjoyable presentation. Pictures taken by Susan Bellis.

September Program: Charity Sew-In

I look forward to seeing you for our next guild meeting September 14th, 2022. I have something for all of us to do. Those of you who like to sew by hand can add the labels and tie the quilts. Those who like to use their machines, please bring them.

We have 30 or more tops to turn into quilts. I just got a shipment of batting; it is the cotton batting not the fluffy batting.

I am sure it will be a productive and fun evening. For those who are new to the process of creating the quilt "sandwich", it will be an opportunity to learn. I have all the usual supplies, but bring your scissors with your name on them. We are always saying, "where are the scissors"?

See you soon.

Pat Doege 619 410 2734—if you have any questions or concerns.

Block of the Month Challenge—Robyn Phelps

I hope you all are working on your pieced background. I have the next challenge prepared for September. Looking forward to seeing everyone.

I have asked my friend Marty Ornish to be our guest judge, prizes will be awarded! This means you need to finish, be creative and follow each month's challenge.

Cuddle Quilt Report

Don't forget Meals on Wheels have requested placemats (17 x13) and pot holders for their recipients'. I was at the Friendship Quilt Guild's quilt show on the 4th of July, and they were using scraps to make log cabin placemats. Making placemats is a great way to use up scraps and they are the perfect size for practicing free motion quilting skills too!

Jan Mellinger has asked for pet beds.

Here is tutorial from the Missouri Star Quilt company <https://youtu.be/amP0tC8d3cc>

Lots of opportunities to get that stash down.

New Guild Members

Welcome to our new guild members

We are so pleased to welcome four members to the Chula Vista Quilters Guild, Candy Scott, Linda Canon, Sylvia Jacintho and Cynthia Munennich.

Candy has been quilting since the 70's and considers herself a traditional quilter and admires the Baltimore Album quilts. She loves reading about quilting, seeing quilts and has attended many of our local shows. She was invited to join our guild by Sharon Kirkwood and Lynda Reynolds. She also enjoys using her embroidery machine and took Laurel's English paper piecing workshop to enhance her skills of EPP. Welcome, Candy!

Linda is a former member of our guild and is happy to return to enjoy the camaraderie of the group. She likes piecing, appliqué and embroidery. We are so happy to have her back with us. Welcome back, Linda!

Sylvia is also a former member who has been quilting for 41 years. She has taken piecing and appliqué classes and enjoys doing both, as well as hand embroidery. She helps her daughter, Vanessa, with childcare for her granddaughter. She has been a long arm quilter since 2006 and you can contact her if you need her services. We are very happy that you have rejoined our guild. Welcome back, Sylvia!

Cynthia was invited to our guild by her friend, Shirley Fenner. She learned to make a sampler quilt thru the computer. She likes sewing bags, wallets and clothes and crocheting. She wants to learn more quilting techniques by participating in guild classes, lectures and workshops. Welcome, Cynthia!

Check out our Library

DID YOU KNOW. . . that the CVQG has a library?

Yes, we have a library and it is growing! Each month I will highlight some aspect of the library.

This month will be the author, Eleanor Burns. We have a number of books by Eleanor Burns. Eleanor is a master quilter and former TV series host of the "Quilt in a Day" series which aired in 1994 on PBS for 6 seasons. Growing up Eleanor was dyslexic and taught herself to sew at a young age. She developed an extraordinary ability to make difficult things simple and she enjoyed teaching others. Over 30 years ago Eleanor introduced her first Quilt in a Day book. Even though Quilt in a Day is over 30 years old it is very contemporary today.

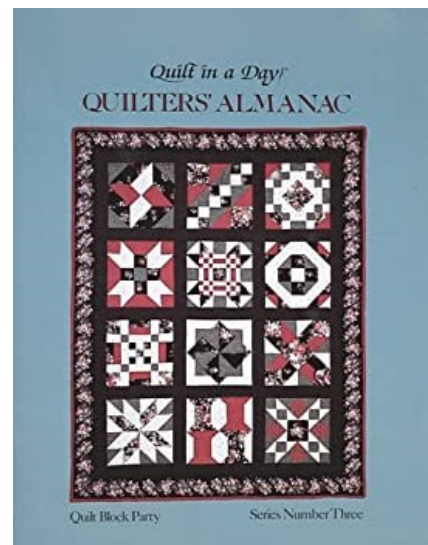

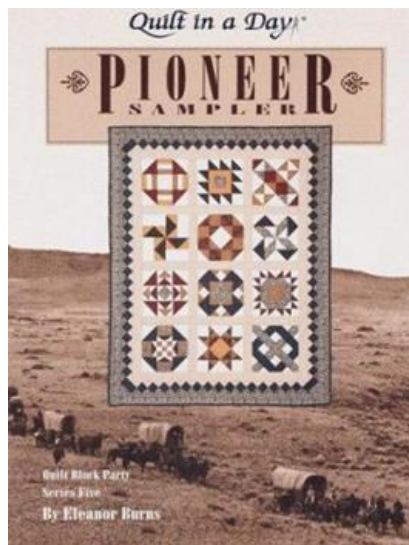

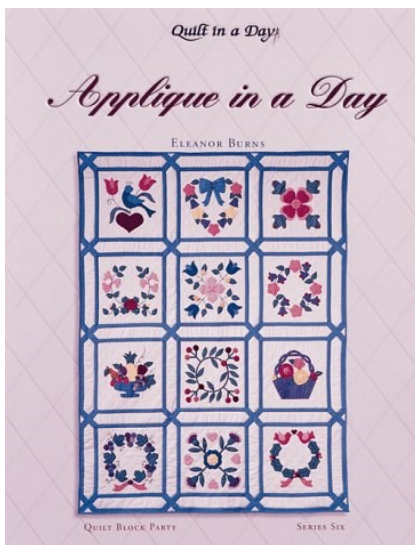

The books we have in our library are:

- Applique in a Day & Night (2)
- Pioneer Sampler Quick Trip Quilts
- Quilt Block Party Quilters' Almanac
- Tulip Quilt Victory Quilts

There is a Quilt in a Day retail store in San Marcos at 1955 Diamond Street.

It's easy to check out a book. Look for the pocket at the front of the book. There should be a 3x5 card in the pocket with the name of the book and a line to put your name, date you check it out and your phone number. Leave the 3x5 card for me to file and enjoy the book.

Happy Quilting! Joette

The Traveling Quilter ~ Kathy Cadwell

I attended the Garden Quilt Show sponsored by the Iowa Quilt Guild at Reiman Gardens on Saturday, 26 August. The Gardens are located on the grounds of Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa and are very extensive, including an enclosed butterfly garden, Children's Garden and extensive landscaped grounds with statues and water features. It's home to the world's largest concrete garden gnome, Elwood (see picture). They were also holding a special exhibit of sculptures, all made totally from recycled items.

If you look closely at the edges of the eagle's wings, you will see spatulas, knives, spoons and an array of kitchen gadgets. The dragonfly's wings are ironing boards and his legs are constructed of the bottom supports for the boards!

It was a small quilt show but included a range of styles and techniques. My favorite was "Plaid Cats in my Garden" by Judy Reynolds. I immediately thought of Laurel as each cat was individually shaded with crayons and hand embroidered. It was really stunning. I've included a close up picture of one of the squares so you can see the details.

The next picture is from a row quilt featuring "Persian Embroidery" that the quilter said in her description was popular in the 17th century. It looked like some type of fussy cut applique but I could not see any stitches attaching it. Have any of you heard of this technique? Several of the quilt descriptions said the makers had found completed squares at garage sales, antique shops or vintage stores. Just a heads up to keep our eyes open!

The rest of the pictures are quilts that caught my eye that I thought you might enjoy and a few of the gardens. Note the navy blue whole cloth quilt. It was tie dyed with a shibori technique. She then outlined each area with sashiko embroidery and had it custom quilted. The maker said it was a table cloth she bought in China years ago on a hot and muggy day. By the time she got back to her hotel, she was covered with the dye! She certainly turned it into a beautifully quilted work of art.

Hope you all enjoy reading about this show and that the pictures turn out well. I'll be back in September and look forward to seeing you all. -Kathy Cadwell
