PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Guild Members,

This month our speaker is Marty Ornish who does wearable art.

Cheryle will be showing her quilts made over the years for her granddaughter. She will be first on the agenda so be sure to arrive on time for that.

The block of the month will begin this month. Participants will pay $1 for two patterns or $5 upfront for all patterns. More details at the meeting.

Bylaws updates will be presented as well.

It is now my duty to start the nagging process for volunteers as some positions will be vacated soon. Be thinking about how and if you can support one of these positions. It is good to buddy up with the person before they leave so you will know the ropes. More on those later as well. I'm just planting the seed.

We are close to retreat time. Hope you have decided on your projects and as excited as I am to get there.

See you all on Wednesday and don't forget to wear your name tags.

~Janelle

To All,

I have been supporting this charity for many years. It is another way to recycle and to help our children. I am more than willing to take your cards and separate them for you. The "trademark" cards are used to make scratch pads for homeless and for the orphanages in Mexico.
Shawnie ☺ ☺

St. Jude's Ranch for Children Recycled Card Program

Yes! We are still accepting the fronts of your recycled cards (except for Hallmark, American Greetings and Disney which we are unable to accept due to copyright laws) as we continue to revamp our recycled card program in our effort to provide teens with life and work skills.

Please SEND to: St. Jude's Ranch for Children, 100 St. Jude's St., Boulder City, NV 89005.
Stjudesranch.org

We also accept new cards (any occasion) with or without the envelopes. Please do not send cards promoting other charitable organizations. We do not have any cards available to purchase at this time. If you have any questions, please call 702-294-7100.

You can also SUPPORT our programs which help children and youth break the cycle of abuse, abandonment and neglect. Thank you!

A Note from Newsletter Editor

I wanted to let everyone know that I would love to hear any tidbits, stories, quotes, quips, etc. that you would be willing to share. Sometimes I just don't have enough content for the newsletter.

This is your newsletter and I would love to hear your ideas. Please submit them to the guild's email address.

Thank you.

CVQG New Member Report

Although our September meeting was a Sew-In to finish up cuddle quilts, we were very fortunate to have two members join our guild. One is brand new, and one is returning and they both joined right in to help. Be sure to welcome them when you see them at our meetings!

Tomijean Hamilton is our returning member. She has been taking care of her mother for the past five years and now is the time to get back into some of her previous activities. Besides quilting, she enjoys crocheting and knitting. She is a Padres fan and is often looking for a friend to accompany her to games. She has been practicing the Martial Art of Tae Kwon Do for eight years and enjoys teaching new students. It is so nice to have Tomijean back with us! Welcome back!

Elisa Carlucci came to our quilt show in May and she decided to visit a meeting. She fit right in at our Sew-In, worked alongside other members and decided she wanted to join us. She has many connections to guild members that were revealed as we spoke. Her daughter, Cherie, works with Sharon Kirkwood. She and Sharon are in a group that does square and round dancing. She used to work with Gloria. She is Judy McKay's neighbor. She and Burma have friends in common. Chula Vista is such a big city/small town! She considers herself a beginner at quilting and is interested in all techniques. She enjoys knitting and hiking. Welcome, Elisa! We are so happy that you have joined the Chula Vista Quilters Guild.

PROGRAM

MARTY ORNISH

Wielding a needle and thread, using thread-worn, deconstructed and reconstructed patchwork quilts as her pallet, Marty O's wearable art and art quilts are pointed commentary on the stereotypic disempowering and oppressive roles forced onto women by our society over the last century -- and to this very day, many countries around the world.

Marty is a multi award-winning fabric artist. She will share her talent and visions this month.

Proposal for Member Showcase

Many of our members are wonderfully talented. We show them off at our annual Quilt Show and at monthly sharing. We can share their work more fully by showcasing one member at each potluck or perhaps at each meeting.

Purpose

1. Share one member's work in depth
2. Build enthusiasm
3. Inspire others
4. Teach exhibit design
5. Teach show hanging procedures

Requirements for participating

1. Must be a current member
2. Have 5 - 10 quilts/pieces to share
3. Help design the exhibit
4. Help hang and tear down the exhibit
5. Write an artistic statement (1-2 paragraphs about the work) to be published in the newsletter prior to the showcase.

The showcased member may speak during the meeting if they choose and time permitting. This is not intended as a sale (any negotiating or transactions should not be carried out at or during meeting.)

I volunteer to go first at June potluck as a trial run (with my series of 7 silk quilts) and if all goes well, would be happy to chair the project for a year.

CHERYLE MCCOLLOUGH

I started sewing when I was a teenager and in the late 80s, after being curious for years about quilting, I took an adult school quilt class with Kathy Green in East County. One of her lessons was Hidden Wells by Mary Ellen Hopkins. I loved this quilt and gave it to my first grand baby, Grindl, who is a mother of two wonderful little girls. Grindl wanted their quilts to be made from the same pattern, which was a problem because I couldn't remember how or who or where I got the pattern. Luckily, it turned out I still had a folder from the class I took. In the folder was a brochure for the Hidden Wells pattern. So now I have made two Hidden Wells for my great-granddaughter, Birdie, plus a small one for her doll, and just finished one for Clover, my newest great-granddaughter. Also, the Hidden Wells pattern was the background for the challenge quilt I made for last year's quilt show.

This was a special story for me and my first granddaughter, Grindl. I hope you enjoy.

GUILD NEWS

SCCQG NEWS ROAD TO CALIFORNIA QUILT SHOW

The Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds, of which our guild is a member, requests each of the member guilds to submit a block for the SCCQG guild logo wall banner. December 18 is the deadline for the receipt of the blocks.

The parameters are simple:

Using any assembly method (piecing, applique, etc), create a fabric block representing our guild's logo (the logo appears at the top banner of our newsletter).

Size: 8-1/2" (unfinished) square block, which will be trimmed to a finished size of 8" by SCCQG when they assemble the blocks to create the banner representing the member guilds.

The banner will be exhibited at the Road to California Quilters Conference, which runs from January 22-25, 2025.

This is an exciting opportunity for our guild. We're lucky to have a square logo! I can imagine a beautiful hand embroidered red and white block (just because I know our that's one of the styles our members excel at), but the members who want to participate in this project will be the ones who plan our block.

Let's get the project moving at the October meeting. That gives us a deadline of month and a half to get the block in the mail. (For future reference, it will be mailed to Quilters by the Sea, c/o of Kate Webster, 9547 Walnut Street, Bellflower, CA 90706-5719).

SCCQG has also announced a Call for Entries for the SCCQG 2025 Special Exhibit at Road to California, following the theme of "Tradition with a Twist," showcasing the ways quilters take a traditional pattern and make it new through the use of non-traditional colors, fabrics, proportions.

If you want to submit an entry for this exhibit itself, the requirements are much more stringent. Quilts finished in 2023-2025 meet the completion date, so you may have a quilt on hand that you can finish before the early December deadline to email its photo. But you must follow the very strict and precise restrictions spelled out in the Call for Entries. Contact me, Donna Mallen if you have not received a forwarded copy of that announcement by the time you receive this newsletter.

2024 CVQG QUILT SHOW

News about the 2025 Quilt Show

Please Mark Your Calendars: May 2 and 3, 2025

Note that the 2025 show is a week SOONER than our usual dates. This means that the cutoff for entries will also be one week sooner, around the middle of April. Please plan accordingly.

We are pleased to announce that our rental agreement with the Bayview Orthodox Presbyterian Church has been signed by all parties. Once again, they are letting us use their beautiful venue for FREE, although we'll make sure to give them a gratuity. They are SO generous to us! Sharon Kirkwood is processing the agreement with the SCCQG insurance provider now so that we will have coverage during the show.

We will need to have a working party, probably in October when it is cooler, to inspect our quilt racks and other show equipment. Some of the racks and cross poles need repairs and some will have to be replaced. We've included the anticipated replacement costs in the Show's 2025 Budget request.

If you were a subchair for last year's show, please let Laurel and I know if you are planning to continue in that position. Thank you SO much for all your hard work on the 2024 Show.

As we mentioned in the June Newsletter, 2024 was our most successful show ever. A record 388 guests attended, and we had over 203 items on display. We had entries from about 75% of our members, wow! Let's try for 100% participation in 2025, so get those sewing machine cranking!

-Laurel Maloney and Kathy Cadwell, 2025 Show Co-Chairs
