The Holy Bible

THE BIBLE was written on three continents: Asia, Africa, Europe.

In three languages: Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek.

By more than 40 different men: Shepherds, Kings, Prophets, Fishermen, A Tax Collector, A Doctor, A Tentmaker.

Written in palaces and prisons, in deserts and cities, in freedom and exile.

Across roughly 1,500 years.

66 books: One continuous story. Creation, Fall, Redemption, Messiah.

Most of the writers never met. No committee planned it. No human editor stitched it together.

Now look at this image. It visualizes tens of thousands of cross-references throughout the Bible. Every arc connects one passage of Scripture to another, sometimes written hundreds of years apart.

Genesis connects to the Prophets. The Prophets connect to the Gospels. The Gospels connect to the Epistles.

And it all comes together in Revelation.

The Bible opens with the Tree of Life in Genesis and closes with the Tree of Life in Revelation.

Different writers. Different centuries. Different cultures. Yet One Voice.

Behind the human hands was a divine Author.

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God..." 2Timothy 3:16

World News

The Global Financial System Is Quietly Shifting.

America's increasing reliance on economic sanctions is prompting more nations to seek alternatives to the US dollar, according to a recent analysis. While sanctions remain a powerful foreign-policy tool, critics argue their repeated use is encouraging countries such as China, Russia, and other BRICS nations to expand alternative payment systems, conduct trade in local currencies, and reduce dependence on the Western financial system. From a biblical prophecy perspective, these developments are worth watching because Scripture foretells a future global economic system unlike anything the world has seen, and a shift toward Europe as the dominate global leader. In order for that to happen, America's dominate role would have to be reduced.

'Harmful Lies': NIH Gives Grant to

'Gender Minority Birthing People' Study.

The National Institutes of Health awarded Mx. Pond Ezra, a doctoral student at the University of Maryland who goes by "they/them" pronouns, a $35,832 grant to study Analysis of Risk and Protective Factors Influencing Psychological Distress in Sexual and Gender Minority Birthing People (trans women who identify as men, SGM). NIH's website claims that SGM people have higher disparities in pregnancy and face mental health problems. It even alleges that this is perpetuated by "nonaffirming and inappropriate care" that leads to stress and delays in healthcare. Ezra's research also takes focus on transgender parenting, specifically how "seahorse dads", referring to pregnant women who identify as men, navigate parenting roles after birth. "For too long, federal money has been invested, not in logical research for maternal health or cancer that everyone would support, but in ideological activism projects that, at best, waste taxpayer funds and, at worst, push harmful lies." 7.4-Magnitude Earthquake Strikes Colombia.

Residents and rescue workers search through the rubble of a collapsed building after an 7.4 earthquake struck Cali, Colombia, on Aug. 10, 2026. Colombian President Abelardo de la Espriella said at least 111 people died and 87 people were injured. The Aug. 10 tremor comes weeks after back-to-back 7.2- and 7.5-magnitude earthquakes hammered nearby Venezuela in June. Hundreds of buildings were destroyed, and more than 5,000 people died, officials said. Other strong recent quakes include a mag 7.3 earthquake near Puerto Madero, Mexico on July 17, a 6.8 quake in Yushu, Japan on July 27, and a 6.9 quake in Honshu, Japan on June 24. In addition there are about 1,350 potentially active volcanoes worldwide, with roughly 40 to 50 having continuous or ongoing eruptions at any given time. Most of these sit along the Pacific "Ring of Fire", in countries like the United States, Indonesia, Japan, and Italy. (theepochtimes 8/13, Smithsonian institute, AI) (See Matthew 24:7)

A new defense pact is bringing

Turkey, Saudi Arabia and nuclear-armed Pakistan under one security umbrella. The agreement may begin as a regional alliance, but comments already aimed at Israel raise a much bigger question about where this coalition could eventually point. (prophecynewswatch.com 8/7)

Look Up! Your Redemption Draws Near.

Iran's End-Times Theology is More Dangerous Than its Missiles.

The West tends to explain wars through military strength, economics and political ambition. But Iran's leaders are also shaped by a powerful end-times theology centered on the return of the Mahdi. When a regime views conflict, sacrifice, and national suffering as part of a divine script, traditional assumptions about deterrence can become dangerously unreliable. Iran's most consequential weapon may not be a missile, but the worldview guiding those who control them. For many in the Islamic Republic, history is not simply unfolding, it is moving toward a divinely ordained climax. The current conflict with the United States and Israel is viewed by some not merely as another Middle East war, but as part of the events that will usher in the return of Islam's long-awaited messianic figure, the Mahdi. (prophecynewswatch.com 8/5)

The Islamization Of America Is Steadily

The New Censorship: AI Will Decide

What You Are Allowed to Know. A new form of censorship may arrive, not through banned books or blocked websites, but through a helpful chatbot. As artificial intelligence becomes the gatekeeper to news, education and research, approved sources can be elevated while dissenting viewpoints quietly disappear from answers. The danger is not only that AI may provide false information, but that it may conceal alternative sources which users never know about. (prophecynewswatch.com 8/7)

Negotiating With The Enemy?

A Dangerous Deal: Trump's Board of Peace and Hamas.

Why should Hamas be allowed to dictate the conditions of its own disarmament? A proposed Board of Peace framework appears to depend on Israeli withdrawal, international guarantees and the hope that a terrorist organization will voluntarily surrender its weapons. The arrangement risks rewarding Hamas, restraining Israel and turning a promise of peace into a dangerous strategic gamble. (prophecynewswatch.com 8/7)

Bribing Hamas Will Not Bring Peace – It

Will Finance the Next War. Reports that the Board of Peace may pay Gaza residents, including Hamas members, thousands of dollars for surrendered rifles, should alarm anyone seeking lasting security. Hamas has previously rejected billions in development aid rather than abandon its weapons and jihad against Israel. Paying terrorists for a fraction of their arsenal would reward violence, invite fraud, and risk financing the next war. (prophecynewswatch.com 8/7)

Israel Rejects Gaza Disarmament Proposal.

Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu on Tuesday publicly rejected the Board of Peace's US-backed Gaza disarmament proposal, saying Israeli forces will not withdraw from their current positions until Hamas is fully disarmed, a stance that threatens the latest effort to end the war. The proposal emerged from separate negotiations involving Hamas, the Board of Peace, and mediators from Egypt, Qatar, Turkey, and the US. It calls for Hamas to begin surrendering its weapons while Israeli forces withdraw to the Yellow Line established under the October 2025 ceasefire. Israel withdrew to that line last fall but has since expanded its military presence. Netanyahu stressed that Israel never endorsed the proposal. "We did not agree to it. It was not our draft," Netanyahu said, adding that Israel had returned its own comments to US negotiators. The framework had been presented as an extension of the broader peace plan Israel accepted last fall, and a senior US official said Trump would be "very disappointed" if Jerusalem blocked its implementation. Jerusalem's Cup is Trembling Again: The Battle for the Temple Mount.

Nearly 20 Muslim nations are discussing a coordinated response to growing Jewish prayer and Israeli authority on the Temple Mount. The dispute is about far more than access to a holy site; it is about who controls Jerusalem and whether Jews may worship at Judaism's holiest place. Once again, the city described by Zechariah 12:2 as a "cup of trembling" is drawing the nations together. (prophecynewswatch.com 8/7)

Israelis Will Not Accept a Two-State Solution.

Pressing the government to act, a new poll released by the Sovereignty Movement found that 59% of Jews polled support some form of Israeli sovereignty over Judea and Samaria, and 71% oppose the establishment of a Palestinian state in any form. The Sovereignty Movement says the results create an obligation for the current government to advance the issue before the next election to be held October 27, 2026. (israel365news.com 8/7)

A Dress Rehearsal

When Covid hit our planet, we thought we had seen evil. The power grab and the totalitarian agenda were never really about the virus. They were merely a dress rehearsal for what the future would bring.

Then came October 7! Together with my nation, I was exposed to evil on an entirely new level. The sheer demonic nature of the atrocities was unlike anything we had ever witnessed. Was it about land? Politics? Religion? NO. It was a dress rehearsal for a much darker time that will one day befall the Jewish people and everyone who has rejected the mercy of Jesus. We are living in the days of the dress rehearsal. The actual script of the play was written for us two thousand years ago. True believers are those who know the script and have been born again of water and the Spirit (John 3:5).

The good news is that we do not have seats at the premiere. We are not invited. We will be gone. We will be far away. We will be occupied with something infinitely greater. We have a wedding to attend. So while we are still here at the dress rehearsal, holding the script in our hands, let us proclaim the Good News that there is a way to escape that coming day. Yes, the rehearsal is painful enough to wound us, bring tears to our eyes, and break our hearts. But, we are not destined for that wrath. We have been promised deliverance from it, not preservation through it. Paul reminded the believers in Thessalonica that we are "...to wait for his Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come" (1 Thess 1:10). For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus, the Messiah. (Written by A.Tsarfaty, a Messianic Jew: beholdisrael.com 7/28)
