PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come to you with hearts full of praise and thanksgiving because you are good! (Psalm 34:8). You are the God who heals us, restores us, favors us; the God who is faithful to all who call upon your name (Psalm 145:19). Just as you worked within those in the Word before us, we receive all the work you want to do through us.

Father God, we thank you for the purpose you have placed in our lives, and for the fact that we can step into it in this season. Help us to have softened hearts, willing minds, and loyal hearts to you as you lead us and expose us to a world that may hate us because of our love for you (John 15:18-19).

Give us the confidence and strength within us through your power, making us vessels that you can use to exact your will upon this earth (2 Timothy 2:21). Father God, we are grateful that you have chosen us and set us apart, and we pray that you give us the strength to walk like it (1 Peter 2:9).

Father God, give us minds that seek your righteousness (Matthew 6:33). Give us the strength to forsake our thoughts and ways and replace them with what you say because we are who you say we are (Ephesians 2:10). We will do what you have called us to do, and we will see ourselves as fearfully and wonderfully made (Psalm 139:14). We will no longer think when it seems negative things happen, that they are because you are against us, but we will accept that all things work together for our good (Romans 8:28). Our perception has been changed, and our focus has been aligned to have the mind of Christ (Philippians 2:5).

Father God, we thank you for highlighting the things that needed to be killed, suppressed, removed, redeemed, restored, and healed within us. The last few seasons of our lives have seemed like we couldn't go any further emotionally, mentally, physically, and spiritually, yet somehow you made sure we made it through. We thank you that we know the verse that says, "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life" (Psalm 23:6), because we are currently living it.

Father God, I pray for my sister that she remains strong in this fight. May she know the authority and dominion that you have given her upon this earth (Luke 10:19). Every negative thought, every attack from the enemy, every scheme, plot, or ploy, every generational curse or hurtful narrative that she has been told or has been telling herself for all these years only exists because she hasn't taken authority over it. So, Father God, in your name, I pray that she rises up, not just as a person, but in her thoughts, spirit, heart, and mind to the place that is conducive to your power moving in her life at full capacity.

May you make her the type of woman who can receive the abundance that comes from serving a God like you (Ephesians 3:20), from pursuing the purpose that you have ordained for us, from being loved by you and receiving things and being placed in positions that we do not deserve otherwise, but because you saw us fit, you have qualified us to walk into where you ordained us to be (2 Corinthians 3:5-6).

We come to you in prayer today, asking that every person who is tied to our sister and our purpose, may come to us (Psalm 37:23), and that we may always be filled with your words, your knowledge, your wisdom, and your heart (Colossians 3:16).

We pray that as we connect with the people that you bring into our lives, healing may always be present and that we never let your word depart from our lips (Joshua 1:8). May there always be a transformation in our lives, and in the lives of those we cross paths with, as you guide our steps and have ordered them since the beginning of time (Proverbs 16:9). We trust that you are at the helm of our lives, Father God.

We rebuke anything that tries to lay stake or claim on the territory that belongs to us or your people, and we command them to take their hands off in the name of Jesus (Luke 10:19). We declare that we will step into the territory that you have set for us, and we will take over the places that have been under principalities and powers that have kept people bound for years (Ephesians 6:12).

We speak to every situation and ask that you move and do your mighty work, transforming, redeeming, restoring, and turning it around, as you have done in our lives (Isaiah 61:3). Thank you for doing mighty work through us, just as you did through your disciples (John 14:12).

Lord, we pray that the women under the sound of our voice may experience abundance in their lives, breaking generational curses, and providing abundance for their families to come (Malachi 3:10). We declare that we are moving intentionally in this season and seeking you first, no longer keeping our thoughts on mindless things (Philippians 4:8).

We rebuke lazy thinking in the name of Jesus and will no longer let the enemy implant things in our lives and come into agreement with them (2 Corinthians 10:5). We declare that we are operating in the authority that you have given us and that we receive the dominion you have given man upon this earth (Genesis 1:28).

We ask that you remain with us throughout this day and every day to come, guiding us with your wisdom and providing us with your strength. We come before you in prayer, asking that you fill us with your words, knowledge, wisdom, and heart (Proverbs 2:6). We pray that every person connected to us through our purpose and our sister will come to us, and that we may always be in a position to be used by you in a mighty way (2 Timothy 2:21).

We pray that we may have confidence in the type of God that you are, a faithful, mighty, and powerful Sovereign God (Psalms 31:24). May we know you at the depths of our souls, minds, and spirits so that we can walk in what it is that you have for us as we abide in you and seek you above all (John 15:5). We ask that you give us the type of peace, joy, and fulfillment that we have never seen nor dreamed up for us to experience in our lives (Philippians 4:7).

Lord, we pray that every women may experience abundance that her family has never experienced before (2 Corinthians 9:8). We declare that she will be the first generational curse breaker who provides abundance for the rest of her family to come (Galatians 3:13-14).

We pray that we may remain pliable to you, allowing you to correct us when we need it (Proverbs 3:11-12). We pray that we may remain humble, always in a receiving position, and in a posture of worship and fear of you (James 4:10). Help us to be vessels that you wish to use in your plans and purpose (2 Timothy 2:21).

We thank you for everything you give us, Lord, and we acknowledge that everything belongs to you (Psalm 24:1). We pray that we may take you with us wherever we go and grow closer to you every single day (James 4:8). We ask that you continue to soften our hearts and help us truly repent (Acts 3:19).

As we step into this season of abundance, we pray that we may learn how to steward it and become comfortable in your abundance (Luke 16:10-12). We rebuke all negative talk, curses, and lies from the enemy that try to keep us from stepping into what you have given us (Isaiah 54:17). May everything we do be for your glory (1 Corinthians 10:31).

In Jesus name I pray

Amen
