

June PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

Dear Heavenly Father, we come to you seeking to just give you every care that may distract us from receiving the good seeds this prayer will plant. We give you our cares, concerns, and worries about the protection of our loved ones, our health, the lack of provision, fear, loneliness, stress, frustration, impatience, and any other worry the women are experiencing. We lay it at your feet and as you say in the Word we exchange it for your perfect peace to guard our hearts and minds (Philippians 4:6-7).

We want to Thank You for Jesus being the way we can come to you confidently knowing you hear us, knowing we are connected to you, knowing that you chose us. We Thank You for your faithfulness, none of us are without our needs. You care for us and I pray you help us see that in our daily lives more than ever before. I Thank You for protecting my sisters from not just external harm or danger, but the battles we fight that are spiritual. We Thank You for the hedge of protection you have around us (Psalms 91:11-12).

We rebuke all advances from the enemy and command them to fall and return anything he stole in the name of Jesus. You have given us the power over all the enemy and said that nothing shall by any means harm us, and so we cast down every thought that is not of you, every thought produced from the spirit of fear, everything we have come to believe that the enemy is using against us. We rebuke them, for they have no permission to remain or occupy our minds in the name of Jesus (Luke 10:19).

We tremble at your name, we are in awe of your might, we are in love with your spirit and we thank you for being God. You are not like those who have abandoned us or tried to hurt us. You chose us and spoke life into us in the beginning. You sent your son to die for us in order to have a real fulfilling relationship with you! We love you because you first loved us. We worship you for everything you were, are, and have been to us (Psalms 95:6).

I lift my sisters up to you today and everyone under the sound of my voice in agreement with them, every prayer request they are bringing to you this day, this week, this year. We know you already know every desire, petition, and supplication in our hearts, but we lift them to you knowing you are our source, our Provider, our healer, our redeemer, our restorer, Jehovah Nissi (Philippians 4:6, 1 Peter 5:7).

We know even though we look around us and get discouraged and doubtful because the promises you've given us don't seem to be near, we know without faith we can't please you. Therefore, we are not seeking evidence in the physical. Our faith is the evidence of the things unseen. You said that eyes have not seen, ears have not heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man what you have prepared for those who love you and are called according to your purpose. We stand on your Word and what it says, and because of this, our hope lies in you (Hebrews 11:1, 1 Corinthians 2:9).

We rebuke doubt and fear. We will not let it overrun our minds and hearts and affect our relationship with you any longer. I Thank You for drawing us nearer to you day by day. We even Thank You and rejoice in the trials that have led to lessons we may not have learned otherwise, heartbreak that drew us into your perfect love and healing power, and hardship that taught us you are our provider (James 1:2-4, Romans 8:28).

We come before You today with hearts full of gratitude and awe (Psalms 95:2). We thank You for choosing us and calling us to be Your daughters (John 15:16). We acknowledge that it is only through Your grace and power that we can fulfill this calling (Ephesians 2:8-9). Lord, we surrender ourselves to Your will and purpose (Romans 12:1). We seek Your guidance and direction in every aspect of our lives (Proverbs 3:5-6). Grant us the discernment to hear Your voice and the courage to follow Your leading (John 10:27). Help us to trust in Your plans for us, knowing that You are with us every step of the way (Jeremiah 29:11).

Father, we ask that You equip us with everything we need to bear fruit for Your Kingdom (2 Timothy 3:16-17). Fill us with Your Holy Spirit, empowering us to love others, share the gospel, and make disciples (Acts 1:8). Let Your light shine through us, bringing hope, healing, and restoration to those we encounter (Matthew 5:16).

Lord, we lift up the women in our community to You (1 Timothy 2:1). May they experience a deep sense of purpose and fulfillment in serving You (Ephesians 2:10). Strengthen their faith and grant them wisdom and discernment (James 1:5). Surround them with a community of believers who will support and encourage them along their journey (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Father, we pray for unity among women (1 Corinthians 1:10). Help us to celebrate our unique gifts and talents, understanding that together we can accomplish great things for Your glory (Romans 12:4-5). Remove any jealousy, comparison, or competition from our hearts. Instead, fill us with love, compassion, and a desire to uplift and empower one another (Galatians 5:22-23).

Lord, we pray for divine connections and opportunities (Colossians 4:5-6). Open doors for us to impact the lives of others and to be a source of encouragement and inspiration (Matthew 5:14-16). Help us to be intentional in building relationships and reaching out to those who need to experience Your love and grace (Matthew 28:19-20).

Father, we commit ourselves to abide in You (John 15:4). Help us to remain rooted in Your Word, cultivating a deep and intimate relationship with You (Psalms 119:105). Teach us to rely on Your strength and guidance, knowing that apart from You, we can do nothing (Philippians 4:13).

In the name of Jesus, we pray these things, trusting that You will fulfill the calling You have placed upon our lives (Philippians 1:6). May we bring glory to Your name and bear abundant fruit for Your Kingdom (John 15:8). Amen.
