

February PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

We first want to welcome you into our presence. We want to invite you into not only this moment but every aspect of our lives. You have done mighty work in our lives thus far, and we pray this continues for the rest of 2023.

We can tangibly see you in places we thought were barren, lacked clarity, or remained stagnant for years of our lives. We are feeling the discomfort of stepping out of the old and into the new with you. We trust you as we leave our comfort zones. We are done with bad habits and the residue trauma left us with. We have broken free of it because you revealed these harmful things to us. Thank You, Lord! We praise you for your healing power and faithfulness to your word in 2 Chronicles 7:14 (NIV) if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. You alone are our God, our provider, our healer, our chain breaker, our banner, the Lord of our lives, and the God we serve. We Thank You for being true to your word in our lives.

I pray father as we take on this second month of 2023, that we feel emboldened and empowered by you and you alone. Bring us to the place where we can release all of ourselves, and become fully reliant upon you. We know that in our weakness you are made strong, so keep us reminded that it is ok that we don't have all the answers, that we don't have it all together, and that is ok to be vulnerable. Be with us on this journey as we get comfortable being humble and fully expressive of our full selves. Continue to reveal our strengths and weaknesses so we can find ways to show you to others. Continue to strengthen our faith that this year we pray mighty prayers that are bigger than us in order to become good stewards of the assignments, people, and purpose you have tasked for our lives.

Father God, with the authority you have given us when you said you have given us the power to trample serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and that nothing shall by any means harm us, We are no longer in agreement with lazy thinking.

We will have the mind of Christ, we will have a sound mind, and we will cast down every vain imagination that comes against what you have said about us. We will no longer allow the enemy to implant distractions, fears, insecurities, lies, and disease in our lives.

We rebuke and bind every spirit of disease, iniquity, adultery, illness, anxiety, worry, fear, unbelief, vengeance, pride, gluttony, envy, anger, malice, bitterness, sexual immorality, and lust out of our lives right now in the name of Jesus. It has no place where you are taking us. We accept your healing, restoration, and redemption In the Name of Jesus.

We come out of agreement with any thought, belief, actions, or habits that have kept us distant from the life you have purposed for us to live. No more will trauma keep us in bondage, no more will fear hold us back, and no more will we allow the negative things that others say or what we say about us to be our truth. I decree and I declare that your truth is my truth. What You say is who I want to be, so change me Holy Spirit. Mold me and make me into the woman of God you created me to be.

In 2023, We want you, God. We want to experience you fully and truly. We are tired of living on the loop of seeking our own way and will. We are tired of learning the hard lessons. We want to surrender our minds, hearts, souls, and wills unto you to do unto your good pleasure. We ask you right now to be the center of our marriages, our dreams, our businesses, our finances our households, our families, our friendships, and our ministries. Take over Holy Spirit and have your way.

In 2023, we are expectant of your guidance, correction, instruction, and provision in what you have tasked us to do on this earth. Create in us an insatiable hunger and desire for your Word.

In 2 Timothy 3:16-17 NIV, you remind us of the importance of Your Word in our lives. "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, 17. so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."

May we receive this season of our lives as when you instructed Joshua to "Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go. 8. Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1 : 7-9.

As we take this month to truly abide in you in a way we never have before, as we take on the new creation we are in you, we are expecting you to guide us Lord. We are expectant of you to be so loud that there is no question about which way we should go. Isaiah 30:21 NIV says, " Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it." We know you to be faithful to your Word. We have no doubt that as we grow confident in who you say we are , we will be instructed by you to move into our next. WE claim and receive the plan you have to prosper us, not to harm us , to give us a future and a hope." Jeremiah 29:11.

Let this be our season of fullness of clarity as to who you want us to be, what relationship we are to be in, what is tied to our purpose, what assignments are in this season, what job you want us to take, what steps to make in our businesses, and steps we will take into using our spiritual gifts to edify others and give glory and honour unto you.

My life is yours Oh God. It belongs to you. Before you trusted me with this business, these children, the job, the opportunity, the friends, the family, the husband, the boyfriend, the marriage, the financial stability, the home, you knew what I was capable of. You knew what responsibilities and positions I could handle. You equipped me while you created me with everything I would need to bring about this calling on my life. Help me to be confident in your strength, activate my anointing, Let those meant to be for me come to me, and keep those who are not away. Help me to have faith that you created me for such a time as this. Esther 4:14

I want to trust you with all my heart that nothing that occurs hasn't already been brought to your attention. My life is not a surprise to you ;therefore, my hope lies in you.

You knew what pains in my past I could handle and you protected me against those I couldn't. Help me to understand you really do love me and want what is best for me. And so Lord, being confident in the work you have done in us, we are ready to hear instruction direction and guidance for you in our current season that will propel us to our next. Give us understanding and patience in our wildernesses, discernment and strength in transition, and provision and clarity into the established plans you have for our future.

Even as we leave this call Lord, may the woman stuck in the question " What is this? What is that? Is this for me? Is This not for me? May she leave here empowered by your Holy Spirit receiving clarity in her situation. Calm her mind. Heal her of that past trauma that caused her not to trust you with her future. Open her spiritual eyes to see you clearly and help her die to her flesh in this situation. Your way will prevail so I pray that you give her insight to allow her to allow with your loving purpose in this season of her life.

Quiet the troubled soul, the anxious mind, the spiteful mouth, the tearful eyes that are listening to me. I rebuke the enemy trying to cause your daughters to doubt you in this season. Devil, you have no place in her life, and bind you and your forces up in the name of Jesus.

I speak clarity, quietness, confidence, rest, healing, restoration, redemption, love the fullness of joy, and peace to the woman under the sound of my voice for these are her inheritance in you.

Cover her from any future attacks and continue to draw her near to you. Show her your love in a different way today than you ever have before. Prepare her for her marriage, her children, running her household, her connections, her business, her ministry, and her finances so that she is ready when it is time for you to show up and move mightily in her life and she can be trusted to steward over everything you have for her.

This week I pray you give her a glimpse of all you have for her so that it helps her realize you do see her, you do love her, and you have her every cry and prayer. Give her the grace to keep going, the strength to keep getting back up, the heart to persevere, the mind to be stayed on you, and the spirit that is quickened to your instruction.

Show her this place she is in is just a faith builder. It is not her forever, it is your construction zone for her life. Give her grace as you prune her and heal her from her past so that the prosperous future that lies in you can be revealed to her. She has been hurt Lord, however, we forgive those who hurt her and Thank You for the lessons that have equipped her for her time! She's next up Lord. I decree and declare that over her life in Jesus's name I pray Amen!

February Affirmations

I have already received healing in my mind, body, soul, and spirit. It is mine and I will claim it daily.

I am whom God says I am.

The Lord is with me wherever I go, and cares about every aspect of my life.

I hear God's clear direction for my life.

Peace is my portion and I will not settle for less than that.

I have the power to cast down any thought that disrupts the sound mind God gave me.

I am being prepared for my next and I am waiting on God's timing.

God has always given me what I needed, and He won't stop now.

God is concerned about anything that concerns me

God has never left me and never will.
