

January PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

I thank you for keeping my sisters throughout 2022. I thank you for their lives, the lives of those they are connected to, and for their genuine relationship with you. God, there's no other way we want to enter into the year, than, with a grateful, cheerful heart of Thanksgiving unto you.

We thank you for your provision and protection! You have brought us through every trial, loss, struggle, attack, and force that has tried to come against us or hinder us from our fruitful relationship with you. You have kept us through sickness, misfortune, and lack through a pandemic, and through this fallen world's broken systems. You have proven faithful to us, despite the chaos, and calamity in the world around us. You said no weapon formed against me shall prosper, and we are standing on that word. I thank you for your unending protection and mercy day by day and for keeping a host of angels encamped around us, and those we love. We pray that you will continue to keep us in your hands in 2023.

We rebuke the power of the enemy in our lives. We bind every plot, ploy, scheme, unclean spirit, evil covenant, or curse from entering our lives and renounce any we may have come into agreement with. It is you who said we have the power to trample serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and that nothing shall by any means harm us. We take authority over anything, trying to sabotage, speak against, steal, or destroy the plans you have for our lives. Satan and his powers have no permission to run about in our lives and so we bind them up, scatter them, and reverse every curse spoken over our lives never to return again, in Jesus' name. Demons tremble at your name. We are walking in the authority and power you have granted us!

No more will the enemy deposit negative thoughts, deceitful seeds, or curses into our hearts and minds I rebuke every seed of the enemy, in the name of Jesus. It will not follow us into 2023. We are no longer bound by sinful habits, negative, speaking, or idolatry in our lives.

We are receiving the plans you have for our lives and committing our minds, bodies, hearts, and spirits to your power, plan, and glory! For us God, there are no other gods before you in our lives. If we have exalted anything above you, we repent and ask you to take your rightful place in our hearts. We reject every word spoken against whom you say we are. We are who you say we are God.

In 2023, We are submitting our will to you in order to walk in your established ways. We are submitting our hearts to you to be filled with your love and transformative presence. We are submitting our minds to you for your powerful, renewal and restoration. We are submitting our spirits to be made right and steadfast before you. We renounce everything we held onto, put above you, or come into agreement with that is not of you. It will not follow us into 2023. Cleanse us of all unforgiveness, pride, bitterness, anger, fear, covetousness, comparison, jealousy, stubbornness, lust, cursing, procrastination, or backwardness. We are coming out of agreement with all the things not in your design for our lives.

I thank you, Lord, for your unending, mercy, grace, and kindness to me. I am grateful for the love you have shown me in 2022. I

Thank You for the times You provided my every need. I am grateful to be in a place with you where if there was anything I thought I needed, but was bad for me, you kept it from me and taught me to trust you and your timing instead. You showed up as my Father, my Comforter, my Healer, El Roi, Jehovah Jireh, Jehovah Nissi, and remained the great I AM the entire year.

You have renewed my faith in you, restored my heart and mind, and refreshed me with your presence. You knew what I needed, even when I didn't know to ask, and because of that, I have grown as a person and in my relationship with you. I can surrender my all to you God because I have seen you in a new light in 2022. You are not a man that you should lie. You delight in me. You set me free. You have set me apart & chosen me.

In 2023 Father God, I pray, for continued transformation and alignment with whom you see me as. I pray for the vision to see whom you created me to be, and for the confidence to show up as her. I pray for open ears, spiritually, and physically that are sensitive to your voice and can hear your direction, instruction, correction, and guidance.

I pray for resilience and steadfastness in my spirit to not grow weary in my well-doing and to always wait on you. I pray for a heart, so full of your love, that it overflows into my marriage, my husband's life, my children, my family, my friends, and all those you connect me to. I pray you infiltrate my business, my ministry, and my finances so that they may always be used to show you to other people. I pray they're always used for your glory and are aligned with the purpose you have for my life.

I pray to remain focused on you and your glory in 2023. I want to be used by you in a mighty way. I will no longer be passive in my relationship with you or view you as an accessory to my plan.

I declare and decree that you are my identity my source, my strength, my shield, my deliverer, my waymaker, my prince of peace & my counselor.

You have ordered my steps and I will walk in your way. I pray for discipline and the ability to do what you have called me to do so that by this time next year, I am completely unrecognizable to myself and to others around me. I partner with you. Oh God for your plans in my life in 2023. I am no longer seeing myself as aspiring to be whom you called me to be, but I am the woman of God whom you formed in the womb to do your good work upon this earth.

I am claiming these verses to stand upon no matter what in 2023. I will speak every word out loud and meditate on it day and night I will cast down any vain imagination, or thought that tries to come against it. I bind the enemy from trying to steal this seed from my heart before I see its full growth in my life. My hope is in you and I will wait for you to do the things in my life. You plan to do it in your time.

In Psalm 51, I pray for your everlasting, mercy, and loving-kindness to never leave me. That I may never be cast away from your presence, and always remain sensitive to your conviction and correction. I pray for a clean heart and for you to renew the steadfast spirit within me, that always desires your truth and wisdom. I pray in 2023 I am consistently operating in a repentant heart that desires your way above all, delights in it, and commits it into daily practice. Continue to purge me, heal me, restore me, cleanse me, and make me whole. I surrender all things to you that have displeased you. All the things you wanted to remove from my life that I held onto despite you telling me to remove them. I will not delight in being disobedient to you, nor will I seek to half obey, but I strive to walk in swift full obedience unto your will and guidance. I know in this position, I will receive my inheritance of abundant life. I pray you to make me a blessing to your people, and that I may bring glory to your name.

In Isaiah 61, I pray that our broken hearts are mended, that mourning is comforted and we experience freedom in our life in you. We receive beauty in exchange for the ashes of our pasts.

Our traumas, bad habits, negative traits, and generational curses are being repaired, rebuilt, and restored as if we never experienced the pain and suffering from them. Plant good seeds into us and we are making sure we are fertile ground, so that in your timing, we may flourish like gardens in the spring.

We throw off shame and confusion and receive your double honor and double portion. claim everlasting joy in our hearts and mouths as we sing praises to you for the transformative work you have done in us. Please continue to direct our work in truth, so the world sees you in us. Help us root so deep in you, that these promises flow to the generations coming after us as well. I pray we pass healthy relationships with you and abundance, in every area of our lives to our children, their children, and beyond.

In Isaiah 43, I pray we will no longer remember the former things of our old man but look forward to the new things that you're bringing forth in our lives. Make us sensitive enough to perceive it, prepare for it, and to be led to it by you. Give us the confidence to walk as the woman you have chosen to be examples of your might, and power on this earth. May we place our faith in you Father; the One who Does a work that no man can reverse. May we be examples of what falling in love with you does in one's life.

In Isaiah 54, we are no longer living in barrenness. Whether that be in business, finances, relationships, marriages, healing, or needs. We declare overall health in our mental, emotional, spiritual, or physical bodies. We will no longer be in lack. From this day forward, we operate in abundance and restoration. We need your instruction to increase our capacity to enlarge our tents. Strengthen our faith, and our character in our relationship with you so that we may strengthen the stakes for our tents, and receive your blessing of expansion and redemption in every area of our lives, as we draw closer to you.

We give you praise God, for never leaving us, nor forsaking us. For staying true to your word in our lives. I plead your blood over every woman at Her Promise Circle. I decree and declare that every woman in Her Promise Circle walks into her purpose in 2023 she will no longer be confused or bound by the things of her past.

She will walk in full surrender to you. She will walk into 2023 confident with her identity rooted in you. She will be confident in presenting herself as the woman you have called her to be. The woman who is set apart from the world who can go into the world and cause change, and be the testimony, and example of you that the world needs to see. No longer will fear hold her back. No longer will she be insecure in her own strength but confident in the fact that if you called her, you equipped her and that she is ready if you say she is.

Let her be confident in the appointed time in her life that you are moving her to at this moment. I speak life into this woman I speak your peace to this woman. I speak your strength into this woman. I speak your hope into this woman. I speak clarity to this woman. I speak joy into this woman.

I decree and declare every inheritance that we have in you she takes hold of and continues to keep throughout her journey to the woman you've called her to be. May she be unrecognizable to those who've known her for years because of the mighty work you're doing in her in January alone. Rise up in our lives OH God. We are ready to take our position in the Kingdom as our strength comes from you in Jesus' name, I pray

Amen
