

July PRAYER

THE BEAUTY OF SISTERHOOD AND SUPPORT

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come to You this month of July, first and foremost, thanking You for Your continued faithfulness, love, mercy, and grace that You have shown us in our lives and will continue to show. I pray our hearts as individuals and as a community continue to hunger and thirst after You. You are faithful to meet our every need, to hear our prayers, and to comfort us in times of storms. You are awesome and the most reliable source of support we have in our lives.

Lord, we pray in the name of Jesus that this July we may see the support systems You have placed in our lives clearly and usher in more of it in the days to come. Lord, we are grateful that You've provided us with support through our sisterhood and guide us to those who can show up for us in the ways You are so ready to do.

I pray that as You continue to call my sisters to great things, they are supplied with all they need to grow as women in You and in their roles for the Kingdom. May we continue to seek You first in all we do and be guided in every step we take by Your Spirit. As Matthew 6:33 says, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

I break off every chain of doubt, fear, and hardness of heart that would keep my sisters from being vulnerable and connecting with fellow women who could turn into lifelong friends, a healthy support system, and a present help in their walk with You. As it is written in 2 Timothy 1:7, "For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love, and self-discipline."

I pray You connect my sisters to those who are not jealous or have poor intentions but are open by Your Spirit to love, support, encourage, and hold them accountable. Heal them of every wound that would keep them from being women who can be fully seen and attracting the new friendships and connections You intend for them in this season. May they see them as they are and show them love, acceptance, and belonging. May they support them as they walk in the path you laid out for their lives. I pray my sister shows you to others and only attracts those who will be healthy for her. As Colossians 3:14 states, "And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity."

I pray, Lord, You guide them to the healthiest of relationships that not only support them but show them different sides of You and foster a deeper understanding of Your character. I pray these connections show them love faithfully, allow them to be fully themselves, facilitate their healing, and draw them closer to You. As James 5:16 says, "Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective." And as Proverbs 27:17 says, "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another." May these relationships remain strong in trials.

Lord, may our love increase and overflow for each other, as 1 Thessalonians 3:12 says, "May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other and for everyone else, just as ours does for you." We know the importance of the body to our journey and how important our connections are to You. As 1 Corinthians 12:12 reminds us, "Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ." May we live out the gifts that only come in connections this month.

I speak protection over every current and future connection my sister has made that is ordained by you. I rebuke any unforgiveness, offense, pride, fear, envy, or any tactic the enemy may use to cause division you didn't permit in her life. I speak peace even in the necessary trials of relationship in my sister's life so that she is always led by it and knows it is you who placed that connection in her life. I speak increased discernment over my sister's life that she may know who is for her and who is not. I speak increased patience, love, grace, humility, kindness, gratitude, joy, generosity, understanding and joy in her current relationships and connections. I speak reconciliation to any relationship or connection you have ordained that was damaged or torn apart. I pray increased guidance and wisdom as my sister gains the confidence and bravery necessary to be seen by others in the world as your child and light upon a hill that cannot be hid. Lord, I pray you remove what is not for her and make very clear what and who is in her life that is not leading her closer to you. I speak strength for her to leave any one that doesn't serve her in this season. I speak healing over her heart that has been broken and disappointed so that it may be whole again and able to live and be lived.

We Thank You for being the example in our lives for how a healthy connection should be and for being the pillar of love that is unmoving in our lives. As we put ourselves in new spaces and places, connect us to Destiny helpers and those who will bring blessings and growth in our lives. We Thank You for all divine connections taking place in this season whether it be business partners, friends, reconciling family, strengthening current relationships and friendships, or spouses for those who wish to be married. We want to align every relationship in our lives with you and we surrender them to your will. We Thank You and praise you for all you've done and will do in Jesus Name we pray Amen!
