

March PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come to you with hearts genuinely desiring to feel your presence and grow closer to you. We come to you for covering, guidance, and courage in order to move into the month of March according to your plan, will, and purpose for my life.

We Thank You for all the trials, heartaches, and dry times you have brought us through. We thank you that you have shown yourself to truly be our provider, our way-maker, and our promise keeper. Forgive us for doubting you and your love for us and help us in our unbelief. We want to take a moment to surrender ourselves to you. We want to be where you are, we want to love as you love, and we want to continually be led by you to be used for your purpose and Glory. Thank You for revealing who we are in you to us in this season and giving us the courage to walk in the understanding of it.

We declare in this month of March as our launching pad into your purpose for our lives. We want to become sensitive to your voice.

We want your wisdom, direction, & correction as we grow confident in becoming the women you have called us to be. Take us to the place where we not only know your word but live it. We want to not only hear what you say we are but to believe it. We ask for softened hearts, humility, and flexibility to take on what it takes to look more like you. In this season help us to not question whom You say we are, but to own it, believe it, and receive it fully as our identity in you.

We ask Lord that you protect us on this incline to elevation in this season. we rebuke everything that is trying to come against whom you say we are and where you are taking us. We renounce anything we have said, the enemy tried to plant, or what others have said that may have tried to reverse, hinder or curse our path. Let the enemies' schemes against us be burned up never to be restored again.

Father God, with the authority you have given us when you said you have given us the power to trample serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and that nothing shall by any means harm us, We are no longer in agreement with any negative thought process, lie, or opinion uttered against us or where you are taking us in this season. We are whom you say we are, and we are going where you said to go! May we cling to Psalm 37:23-24 that says, " The Lord makes firm the steps of the one who delights in him; though he may stumble, he will not fall, for the Lord upholds him with his hand."

In this season Lord, we are coming to you boldly as it says in ~~Hebrews 4:16~~ believing in faith that you hear our prayers and will keep your promise that we will be supplied for in every good work you lead us to as it says in 2 Corinthians 9:8. We claim and receive this season as the one we grow out of double-mindedness and into one accord with your plan and purpose for our lives by faith. We pray that our faith is continually perfected and that we grow out of being discouraged in every trial, (James 1:2-4) and instead garner the blessing that may be disguised as a lesson, opportunity, or wisdom that can be added to the development of whom we are becoming in you.

We want to truly be alive in you in this season and surrender to your will and plan for our lives. That means being confident in the favor you have placed on our lives and receiving the provisions and blessings that come with it. We will No longer feel unworthy of the position you have set before us. We will no longer settle for just enough. We will no longer be intimidated by the weight of the gifts, skills, purpose, and plans you intricately placed in us before we were even a thought on this earth. (Psalms 139: 14-16) We will stop being dependent on our own means to carry us and be confident in the fact that you are the source of our strength.
(Psalms 28:7-8)

As it says in 2 Corinthians 12:9-10 AMP, Your grace is sufficient for us. Your lovingkindness and Mercy are more than enough and always available to us regardless of the situation. For your power is being perfected and is completed and shows itself most effectively in our weakness.

Give us strengthened faith and courage to help us to live like we believe that we can gladly boast in our weaknesses because your power can completely cover us and dwell in us when we know where our strength comes from. May we believe in the same capacity that is necessary for the next season of our lives.

We claim and receive the sensitivity to your voice, the ability to apply what you have taught us, and greater faith than we have ever experienced before in order to walk according to the purpose you have placed in our lives. We know that walking in the place you wish for us to go to be a light, a leader, a servant, your disciple is your will for us. We can be certain because in Philippians 1:6 "I am confident in this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ."

You will not leave the plans for our lives incomplete as long as we are surrendered to and seeking you. We know that in Isaiah 55: 11, You make sure we know that your word goes forth, and will not return to you void, but it will accomplish what you please and purpose, and it will prosper in the thing you sent it to! In confidence, we ask for our next steps, the hearts that are necessary to walk in our calling, and the consistency to seek you in all we do. It is our desire to be good and faithful servants on this earth unto you. May we affect the people you bring our way, may you increase our influence as women of God, and may you expand our territory in this season so that we may become valuable parties in the kingdom here on earth.

Lord, just like Jabez in 1 Chronicles 4:10, we are asking that you would bless us and enlarge our territory. We ask that your mighty hand remain with us. We never want to be where you are not because we know our ability, authority, and strength come from you. In your perfect will, we have nothing to fear and will only be effective in everything you ask us to do. Just as you told Joshua in Joshua 1:9, you would be with him wherever he went, and therefore; he should never fear or be discouraged. We want to be the people you have given every place the soles of our feet tread. We want to do this with your power that works within us and the authority you have given us. May you keep us from evil so we are not harmed. We know that you granted Jabez's request, so we do not doubt you will hear and grant ours!

We are claiming this season as a season fear can't reach us, other people's opinions can't discourage us, and our minds are renewed so that we don't stop ourselves from walking into everything you have stored up for us. You said in 1 Corinthians 2:9 that " Eyes have not seen, ears have not heard, nor have entered the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. Because of this Lord, we ask you continue to prepare us every day, correct us in the parts of ourselves that can't go to this place, and fortify our confidence in you so we don't fear the divine connections, blessings, or elevation you wish to bring into our lives.

I pray father that the women under the sound of my voice are transformed by claiming your word for their lives. I pray this woman no longer is a victim of her insecurities, self-doubts, and unbelief in who you are or whom you say she is. I pray that you send her confirmation, encouragement, and direction to begin walking into the new creation you have made her to be. I pray all this in your name Jesus, Amen.
