EMPOWERED LIVING

Dear Heavenly Father,

I come to you on behalf of my sisters, Lord, as we stand on the threshold of a new month, eager to embrace the journey you have set before us. May our hearts overflow with gratitude as we enter into your presence, acknowledging your sustaining power and your unwavering faithfulness. In the words of Psalm 100:4 (AMPC), "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and a thank offering and into His courts with praise! Be thankful and say so to Him, bless and affectionately praise His name!"

Thank you, Lord, for your continued protection, the depth of your love, and your unending grace that envelops our lives. Your Word in Psalm 36:7 (AMPC) declares, "How precious is Your steadfast love, O God! The children of men take refuge and put their trust under the shadow of Your wings." We are grateful for every blessing, whether evident or hidden and even for the challenges that draw us closer to you.

Lord I Thank You for renewed minds and perspectives as we enter into this new month. May it become part of our daily living to always expect well of you, to always know that you have our best interest at heart, to know that your steps for us were written out and ordered. May we trust that you have beautiful prosperous plans for our futures and that we will walk in your wondrous light as we fulfill them. May we always be the light reflecting your love on hill that cant be hidden. Help us to guard our hearts, minds and spirits from all negativity and protect us from the the schemes of the enemy so that we are always focused on things above and not distracted from seeking your face.

Grant us the eyes to see beyond the trials and hardships, Lord, recognizing them as opportunities to witness your faithfulness and provision. Your Word in Romans 8:28 (AMPC) assures us, "We are assured and know that [God being a partner in their labor] all things work together and are [fitting into a plan] for good to and for those who love God and are called according to [His] design and purpose." May we perceive every obstacle as a stepping stone to deeper faith and spiritual growth.

Lord, in this month of March, I lift up my sisters, praying for a preparation like never before. Strengthen them, O God, to establish good habits and to let go of harmful ones. Illuminate the path ahead, providing clarity on the steps they should take. As Psalm 119:105 (AMPC) proclaims, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

Instill within us a spirit of humility, O Lord, that we may recognize and willingly undergo the changes needed within us to align with your perfect will. Your Word in Philippians 2:3-4 (AMPC) guides us in this: "Do nothing from factional motives [through contentiousness, strife, selfishness, or for unworthy ends] or prompted by conceit and empty arrogance. Instead, in the true spirit of humility (lowliness of mind) let each regard the others as better than and superior to himself [thinking more highly of one another than you do of yourselves]. Let each of you esteem and look upon and be concerned for not [merely] his own interests, but also each for the interests of others."

Connect us, dear Father, to new friendships, desired relationships, and professional connections that serve as destiny helpers along our journey. May these relationships further prepare us for the fulfillment of your purpose in our lives. As Proverbs 27:17 (AMPC) reminds us, "Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend."

As we continue to become the women prepared for your promises for our lives, help us embrace this season of readiness and anticipation. Just as a gardener diligently tends to the soil before planting seeds, we pray you continue to cultivate our hearts and minds, removing any hindrances and establishing firm foundations.

We declare This month is a time of intentional preparation, where we align ourselves with your purposes and eagerly anticipate the fulfillment of your promises in our lives. As we embark on this journey of preparation, may we be open to the transformational work of your Holy Spirit, allowing Him to refine us and shape us into vessels fit for the fulfillment of our divine destiny. Through prayer, reflection, and action, let us embrace this theme with faith and expectancy, trusting that you are faithful to bring to fruition that which You have promised.

As we unite in prayer, may our faith be strengthened, our hearts be united, and our spirits emboldened to walk in the path you have set before us. May this month be marked by exponential growth, breakthroughs, and a deepening of our relationship with you, our ever-present guide and source of strength.
