

September PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

Our hearts are filled with determination as we stand before You today, ready to break free from every block and hindrance that has kept us from fully living the abundant life You have intended for us. We declare that we will no longer accept fear and doubt as roadblocks in our journey. Your Word affirms that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us (Philippians 4:13), and so we rebuke fear and doubt in the powerful name of Jesus. As You helped Your disciples, we pray You help us in our unbelief in times trusting You, accepting Your will, and relying on Your faithfulness seem like a struggle.

Lord, we refuse to be inconsistent in our pursuit of You. We recognize the power of drawing near to You, and we declare our commitment to prioritize our relationship with You above all else. We believe in the transformational impact of Your presence in our lives, and we reject any distraction that seeks to pull us away from You. I pray you open our eyes to the things keeping us from living out your will for our lives and the strength to remove them. Give us the discernment that allows us to see what could be corrupting our pure hearts towards you.

Pride has no place in our hearts any longer. We humbly acknowledge that it is through Your wisdom and guidance that we find true success. We need you, Father! We are fully reliant and dependent on you. There are women who have come to the end of themselves and are tired of trying to carry everything and everyone around them. You are God! Help us to move out of the way and humble ourselves to create space for you to take control. We choose humility over pride, and we embrace Your correction as a means to growth. Your Word assures us that those who humble themselves will be exalted (Matthew 23:12), and we embrace that promise wholeheartedly.

No longer will we allow idols to take precedence over You in our lives. We recognize that Your love and presence are unparalleled, and we cast aside any desires or priorities that have overshadowed our devotion to You. We pray that you reveal yourself in a mighty way Oh God that we may see your fullness in our lives. As it says in Ephesians 1:17-18 (AMP): “[I always pray] that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may grant you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation [that gives you a deep and personal insight] into the true knowledge of Him [for we know the Father through the Son]. Your Word teaches us that seeking You first leads to all things being added unto us (Matthew 6:33), and we confidently align our desires with Yours.

Lord, we boldly declare that we will not be conformed to the patterns of this world any longer. Your transformative power is at work within us, and we surrender our minds and hearts to Your renewal. We stand strong in the truth that we are more than conquerors through Christ (Romans 8:37), and we will no longer tolerate negative self-talk that diminishes the power of Your promises in our lives. We will only decree and declare the things you have said so they may begin to take shape and form in our lives! May your Holy Spirit give us the self-control self-awareness and discipline needed to not curse or speak against what you say but to come into full agreement with it in our Minds Mouths and Hearts!

In the name of Jesus, we break every chain that has held us back. We proclaim our freedom in Christ and our authority as children of the Most High God. With unwavering faith, we declare that we are overcomers through Him who loves us (Romans 8:37), and we embrace the victorious life You have destined for us Empowered by Christ’s redeeming grace, we rise above the shackles of fear, and doubt, and inconsistency, pride, and every other stumbling block that has sought to impede our journey. Just as the apostle Paul declared in Romans 8:37, we stand tall, we confidently believe that we are not just conquerors, but we conquer because of the constant love of our Savior.

With unwavering confidence, we exercise the authority given to us as heirs of the King. We remember Jesus' words that whatsoever we bind on earth is bound in heaven, and whatsoever we loose on earth is loosed in heaven (Matthew 18:18). As we sever every chain, we seize the victory that has been secured for us through Christ.

We thank You for the strength, courage, and empowerment that You provide. As we step into this new season, we do so with our eyes fixed on You and our hearts aligned with Your will. May our lives be a testament to Your faithfulness and grace.

With solid faith, we're recognizing our partnership with Christ, just like Romans 8:17 points out. This means our lives are woven with purpose and endless grace, not as mere spectators but as active participants. Embracing the truth in Philippians 1:6, we understand that what God starts in us, He'll carry through to the end. Our lives reflect the promise found in Ephesians 3:20 – that God's power, working within us, can exceed even our wildest imaginations. This is because what God has in store for those He loves and calls is beyond what eyes have seen, ears have heard, or even entered into the heart of man.

Now, in the mighty name of Jesus, we declare and decide that this season is all about God coming through on His promises. We're standing on the threshold of His overflowing goodness, ready to claim every blessing, provision, and fresh revelation that aligns with His perfect plan. Our hearts are charged with excitement and anticipation as we step into the fullness of God's promises, knowing His Word is unshakable, His love is boundless, and His plans are absolutely sure.

in Jesus name We Pray Amen

September Declarations

1. I am determined to break free from all limitations and embrace the abundant life God has promised.
• John 10:10
2. I release all fears and doubts that hinder my progress, trusting in God's unfailing love and guidance.
• Psalm 56:3
3. I choose consistency in seeking God's presence and Word, renewing my mind daily to overcome distractions.
• Romans 12:2
4. I humbly lay aside pride and surrender my plans to God, allowing Him to direct my path.
• Proverbs 16:9
5. I break free from any form of idolatry or distractions that hinder my relationship with God.
• 1 John 5:21
6. I reject negative self-talk and embrace the truth of God's Word that declares my worth and purpose.
• Psalm 139:14
7. I boldly step out of my comfort zone, trusting that God's power is made perfect in my weaknesses.
• 2 Corinthians 12:9
8. I am serious about removing every hindrance that keeps me from experiencing God's best in my life.
• Hebrews 12:1
9. I choose to let go of any past hurts or regrets, allowing God's healing to make me whole and free.
• Isaiah 43:18-19
10. I am resolute in seeking God's revealed plan for my life, trusting that His abundant blessings await me.
• Ephesians 3:20

