

OUR SPEAKERS

Jim Mitchell is a founding owner of Mitchell's Nursery in King, NC. He helps run the family-owned independent local gardening center since 1979. Jim graduated with a BS in horticulture from North Carolina State University. He looks forward to sharing his knowledge on growing trees and shrubs and using greenhouses to improve energy and water conservation as well as to make the best use of the space you have.

Stesha Warren is an agroforester with Appalachian Sustainable Development, and co-owner of Eliana's Garden, LLC, in Stoneville, NC. Stesha graduated with a BS in agricultural education and is an agroforestry technical trainer and holds a wild mushroom certification through Mushroom Mountain. She looks forward to having a conversation about wild spring foraging and mushrooms. Additionally, VA Master Naturalist Christine Stewart will be set up with information on becoming a Master Naturalist.
