

THE FIRST PRINCIPLES - Leader's Guide - Teaching the First Principles

First Principles of Leading the First Principles

Student Name:

Student Mentor Associate
Faculty

Session 1 Objective: You have a basic understanding of the Didache

Record your thoughts on the importance of being founded in the body of teaching

--	--

Summarize the whole body of preaching and teaching that was delivered by Christ's Apostles to the churches and describe the importance of establishing every church and believer in it.

--	--

Session 2 Objective: You have a an understanding of the structure of the series and develop a platform for Biblical Theology

How do these passages add to what it means to see a person established in the faith? Record your thoughts

--	--

Describe specifically how The First Principles Series is structured to teach people the process of doing solid biblical theology themselves rather than merely learning man-made traditions.

--	--

Session 3 Objective: You are developing an understanding of the importance of a practical, wisdom-tradition approach for teaching people to think Biblically

Record your thoughts on the passages (Proverbs 1:1–7; 4:1–8 | Kings 8–10)

--	--

Describe specifically how each session and booklet in The First Principles Series is designed with a wisdom-based educational process for teaching people to think biblically.

--	--

Session 4 Objective: You are devoping the skills and conviction of learning a consistent study process

Record your thoughts on the passages (Proverbs 22:29, 2 Timothy 2:15)

--	--

Describe the unique skill set that is needed to effectively teach The First Principles Series, assess your own skills in comparison, and describe your plan to improve each needed skill.

--	--

Session 5 Objective: You are beginning to think seriously about the importance of quality assessment.

Record your thoughts on the need for quality assessment based on the passages (1 Timothy 3:1–13; Titus 1:5–9, Titus 2, 2 Timothy)

--	--

Describe how you are developing the skill of doing qualitative assessment of those you are teaching and describe how you are helping them to set up portfolios that collect and show evidence of their life development.

--	--

Session 6 Objective: You have sincere convictions on what it biblically means to approach teaching and learning and the skills required to grow in this area

Reflect on what you have learned from the biblical texts, readings and discussions related to the previous five competencies.

Summarize the most important and personally impactful things that you have learned about teaching the first principles and create a basic plan for shaping your life decisions and habits around these convictions.

--	--	--

Completion Date:

NOTES: