The deposit to reserve your spot on the waiting list is $200. This is refundable at any time, up until the kitten of your designation is born. At that time you will be notified and you will have 24hrs to send the rest of the deposit, 50% of the purchase price. If you are unable to purchase your kitten at the time of its birth, you will be moved to the bottom of the list and your $200 deposit is no longer refundable.

Once you are approved and offered a spot on the waiting list you will be advised of the options for sending the deposit.

We hope you have thoughtfully considered each of the questions asked. We invest a significant amount time and money into raising healthy, health tested and highly socialized kittens. This also means that we are very emotionally invested in them as well. Our goal is to ensure a good match between our kittens and prospective owners.

If you have any questions, please ask!
