

The Daily Tote – Beginner Sewing Course

Course Overview

Learn the fundamentals of sewing while creating your own everyday tote bag. This hands-on workshop is designed for beginners who are ready to build confidence using a sewing machine and following a pattern.

In this class, you'll make a reversible tote bag featuring both interior and exterior pockets, giving you a versatile, functional accessory you can use every day.

Course Details

- Duration: 3 hours
 - Class Size: Up to 6 students
 - Format: In-person workshop
 - Materials: Bring your own sewing machine or use one provided
 - Prerequisite: Basic understanding of how to thread and operate a home sewing machine
-

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Follow a beginner sewing pattern and read basic sewing illustrations
- Thread and operate a sewing machine, including straight stitching and backstitching

- Measure, cut, and press fabric accurately
 - Construct a tote bag, including straps, seams, and hems
 - Add interior and exterior pockets
 - Create boxed corners for a flat-bottom bag
 - Assemble a fully reversible tote with a clean finish
-

What's Included

- Printed tote bag pattern to take home
 - Illustrated instruction booklet for future projects
-

Supplies Needed - * Use non-stretch fabrics only

Best choices: Cotton, Lightweight canvas, Light to medium-weight denim, Lightweight non-stretch synthetic fabric.

- 1/2 yard exterior fabric
- 1/2 yard lining fabric
- 1/4 yard fabric for straps