Important Notice — New Drug Screening Procedure

Effective November 3rd, 2025, Journies Inc. will be implementing a new color-based drug screening system.

Each participant has been assigned a specific color.

It is your responsibility to check Journies Inc.'s official Facebook page daily to see which color is called for testing that day.

- If your color is posted, you must report for your drug screen that same day.
- We will no longer be calling or texting participants for reminders.
- Failure to check daily or to report when your color is called will be considered non-compliance.
- This system is mandatory and applies to all participants.

Please note: Testing times and details may vary. Always follow the instructions listed with the color posting.

It is your responsibility to check Journies Inc.'s official Facebook page daily!

Acknowledgment & Signature

I, _____, have read and understand the above information. I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to check the Journies Inc. Facebook page daily for my color and to report for testing when required. I understand that failure to comply may result in a violation being reported to my probation officer or referring agency.
